City of Houston Bikeway Program presents the Little White Oak Bayou Trail Ribbon Cutting
Saturday, September 12, 2009
9:00 a.m.—10:00 a.m.
Link Rd. and Enid St., Houston, TX 77009

Join the City of Houston Bikeway Program for the grand opening of the Little White Oak Bayou Trail. The opening of the Little White Oak Bayou trail is the fourth of five bike trails opened by the City of Houston in 2009. This trail parallels I-45 and links local neighborhoods to the Heights and on-street lanes along Cavalcade. Parking is limited, we encourage you to take advantage of this great new trail by riding your bicycle to the event.

Speakers: Michael S. Marcotte, P.E. , D.WRE, BCEE—Director, Public Works and Engineering
Representative Jessica Farrar—Texas House of Representatives, District 148
Council Member Edward Gonzalez—City of Houston, District H

Directions

Driving: I-45 North, exit W. Cavalcade and turn west, turn north on Enid and East on Link. North Loop West, exit Airline and turn south, turn east on Link. Event to take place on the northeast corner of Link and Enid.

Bicycling: East of I-45, bicyclists can use the bike lanes along Fulton, Altoona or Hirsch to Cavalcade going east to the Little White Oak Bayou Trail. West of I-45, Bicyclists can use bike lanes along Heights Blvd. and travel east along the 20th street bike route. The 20th street bike route transitions into bike lanes along Cavalcade at the intersection of N. Main St.
