Remember To Attach Any Part Of The Campaign Finance Report Form Needed To Report And Explain Corrections

EXPLANATION OF CORRECTION

It has come to my attention that:

1. Inadvertently, my Candidate/Officeholder Report for the above-referenced period did not contain complete addresses for a small number of contributions, pledges, and expenditures. Complete addresses are set forth for each and every one of those contributors, pledgors, and vendors in schedules attached to and filed with this Correction Affidavit.

2. Inadvertently, my Candidate/Officeholder Report for the above-referenced period did not include FEC statements of organization for certain out-of-state political committees from whom I received contributions during that period. It is my understanding that my Campaign Treasurer had each out-of-state political committee's statement of organization at the time of receipt of that political committee's contribution, but I am now told that he did not know whether or not he was required to attach them to the Candidate/Officeholder Report and that he did not attach them to the Candidate/Officeholder Report. Attached to and filed with this Correction Affidavit are FEC statements of organization for the out-of-state political committees from whom I received contributions during the above-referenced period.

3. My campaign received certain contribution checks from corporations, I have now discovered. Inadvertently, we deposited those checks. I know that my Campaign Treasurer, throughout our working relationship, which dated back to 1988, had a system in place in which his office would review contribution checks and return, with a cover letter, all contribution checks submitted by corporations. I relied on my Campaign Treasurer to continue this practice throughout my 2003 mayoral campaign, and I believed that my Campaign Treasurer was indeed following that practice throughout my 2003 mayoral campaign. I had no knowledge that any corporate contributions had been received. All contributions received from corporations have been returned, and copies of checks returning those corporate contributions are attached to and filed with this Correction Affidavit.
