MAYOR’S REPORTS - Briefing on 2004 Super Bowl:
Executive Assistant Chief Dennis Storemski - Houston Police Department
Mr. Jordy Tollett - Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau
Mr. Robert Dale Morgan - Super Bowl Host Committee

Mayor White stated that the first order of business would be a report on the Super Bowl and invited Chief Dennis Storemski, HPD, Mr. Jordy Tollett, Director, Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau and Mr. Chuck Watson, Chairman of the Board, Houston Super Bowl Host Committee, to the podium to begin the presentation. Council Members Ellis and Khan absent.

Mr. Tollett stated that he had his staff deliver a book titled “Super Bowl XXXVIII Marketing Campaign”, that kind of outlined their marketing efforts associated with the Super Bowl to the Mayor and each Council Members and also a model billboard, where they tried to take advantage of the Super Bowl being in Houston for two weeks versus what had been for the last four years, one week, that the NFL Experience was actually going to cover a two weekend period, which was good for Houston in that during the normal Super Bowl week there were no hotel rooms for other people to come and experience the NFL Experience so with the opportunity they took an aggressive marketing campaign to tell people in the State of Texas and surrounding States that they could actually see the NFL Experience for the first time in four years because in the last four cities there were no hotel rooms for them to visit, unless they just drove in and drove out. Mr. Tollett reviewed the marketing campaign book for the Mayor and Council Members. Council Member Berry absent.

Chief Storemski stated that the Houston Police Department had a great deal of experience in successfully handling major events and they planned to build on that experience, that their planning for the Super Bowl began over a year ago when they traveled to San Diego to observe Super Bowl XXXVII first hand and to view the tight security issues and other challenges that they might expect to address in Houston, they visited with the San Diego Police Department officials and obtained some valuable information for their own planning process, that last January they assembled a team of very talented individuals, people from every rank though out the department to plan their operation for the event and the result was a very comprehensive plan for security, crowd management and traffic management, that although the Houston Police Department was the lead law enforcement agency for the Super Bowl security their planning process had been an extremely cooperative effort among some 25 Federal, State and local law enforcement agencies, that he had been in the business a long time and had never seen this level of cooperation among so many different agencies, that they had worked very closely with the NFL and the Houston Host Committee to ensure that they understood all the issues, concerns and their needs and to provide input on their planning process concerning security issues, that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was the lead federal agency for the Super Bowl and they had acquired resources and assets from numerous other federal agencies including the ATF, Secret Service, FEMA, EPA, the Nuclear Regulatory Agency, the Homeland Security Department and many other agencies, that Sheriff Tommy Thomas and the Sheriff’s Department had been an active partner in the endeavor from the beginning and had agreed to staff a number of the venues with their uniformed personnel, that at the State level the Department of Public Safety, the National Guard, the Governor’s Office and Homeland Security would be providing resources and support, obviously the Super Bowl, by its very nature, must be considered a high risk event and would certainly be an attractive target for a terrorist incident, that their plan in that regard focused on prevention, response and consequence management, that prevention was the first and foremost goal, and intelligence and target hardening were very important keys to prevention, although they had no specific intelligence at this time there was a specific threat, their Criminal Intelligence Division continued to work with the FBI and other members of the intelligence community to share intelligence and to follow up on any relevant or suspicious information, an Intelligence Fusion Center had been activated at the FBI Office in Houston with representatives from every intelligence agency and would operate twenty four and seven until the end of the Super Bowl activities, that the other component of prevention was target hardening and a number of measures were taken to make sure the venues were secure, first and foremost police visibility was number one and there would be a high police presence, that Reliant Park and the stadium would be secured by a hard barricade, fence and metal detectors at all entrances, there would be monitoring for explosives and other weapons of mass destruction and there would be flight restrictions within a seven mile radius of the stadium, that the Houston Police Department and the FBI would have resources in place to immediately respond to any type of incident, those resources would include a SWAT unit, their special response group, their bomb squad and other similar assets from the FBI, the Fire Department, Emergency Medical Service, Hazardous Materials Teams and other consequence management resources from the Fire Department and a number of Federal and State agencies would be staged at or near the stadium and other venues, that command and control for all the activities would occur at the Emergency Management Operation Facilities at the new HEC center and there would be representatives from every security agency and every public safety agency at that center during the entire week, that in terms of traffic, they had developed a comprehensive traffic plan, that on game day they anticipated the traffic would be much lighter than one would expect on a normal Texans Football Game simply because the NFL contractor for transportation estimated that over 34,000 fans would be brought to the stadium via bus, limousine and taxicab so the number of private vehicles should be at a minimum, that the Main Event downtown hosted by the Host Committee would probably create some heavy traffic simply because they would be closing portions of six streets in the downtown area on the evenings of Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, however the traffic should not be any worse than any of the other events they had in the City throughout the years, that they would be coming out with a media announcement about suggesting where people could park, the areas downtown that they could use and in addition they had worked with Metro and they would be running some Park and Ride operations as well as the circulator in the downtown area to insure that people got from the parking areas to the events.

Mr. Watson stated that he really appreciated the opportunity to report to them on their preparations for Super Bowl XXXVIII, that the Host Committee was actually established to fulfill the obligations and expectations of the bid that was submitted on behalf of the committee to the National Football League on November 1, 2000 when they were awarded the event, that today he could report to them that the National Football League was pleased with Houston’s progress to date, that each and every obligation, to this point, had been met, further they fully expected to meet all the expectations and obligations of their bid, both for the City and the County over the next 12 days, that they had no reason to believe that over the next two weeks they were not going to be able to assist the NFL in really staging a world class event and the best Super Bowl ever, that secondly he wanted to report on their efforts to make sure that all Houstonians were able to participate in Super Bowl XXXVIII, a promise that he made to the Council several months ago, that like any other Super Bowl city, they in Houston in addition to making sure that they met all the obligations to the NFL, considered the participation of the citizenry, they had been working for over a year a strategic planning effort to establish activities that would be open to the public and free of charge allowing all Houstonians, regardless of their economic status, an opportunity to participate in Super Bowl XXXVIII, that they may have seen in recent news accounts that they created thirty eight super hours of entertainment downtown occupying sixteen City blocks with thirty six musical acts, that the musical entertainment that they had contracted was really as diverse as the community itself and were hoping to electrify the citizenry with the Super Bowl XXXVIII activities, that they were really proud of the corporate community and the elected officials and the hospitality industry who had been so instrumental in bringing the plan to fruition, that it was called the Main Event and the Main Event would begin on Thursday, January 29, 2004 and would continue until Sunday night after Super Bowl XXXVIII, and he encouraged everyone present and all Houstonians to participate, that it would be a grand time, that finally the community relations initiatives that he also committed to the Council and were high on their priority scale of what they wanted to accomplish over the next time frame, that they had spoken in the past about the economic impact of the Super Bowl and had also spoken about the visibility that they would derive from the great event, but he really wanted to tell them about the quality of life improvement that would earn the community as a result of Super Bowl XXXVIII, that for the last year they had worked with the NFL on an emerging business program to provide opportunities for women and minority owned companies who might otherwise not have an opportunity to bid on and/or receive contracts regarding Super Bowl XXXVIII, and secondly as many of them may have seen also in recent news reports, last Friday they announced an initiative that would allow them to be the first Super Bowl City to build two youth education town centers as a result of hosting the Super Bowl, that both of the facilities would be located in underserved neighborhoods allowing them to better the lives of the young people in those communities, that he wanted to thank Mayor White and the Council Members for their continued support in helping them demonstrate to the world that Houston was capable of staging a world class event.

MATTERS HELD - NUMBER 41

41. ORDINANCE approving and authorizing amendment No. 1 to Contract No. C50015 between the City of Houston and WACKENHUT CORPORATION for Security Guard Services at George Bush Intercontinental Airport/Houston, William P. Hobby Airport and Ellington Field - $4,688,006.43 Enterprise Fund - DISTRICTS B - GALLOWAY and E - WISEMAN – (This was Item 25 on Agenda of January 14, 2004, TAGGED BY COUNCIL MEMBERS EDWARDS, QUAN, BERRY, GARCIA, GREEN and GALLOWAY) – was presented.

Council Member Quan stated that he knew they had a time limit on the item and would implore Wakenhut to come forward with a plan to Council Members, that he thought they all expressed their concern about their efforts to work with the minority community on it, that while he was not going to block the item he hoped that within 30 days they would see a plan of action.

Council Member Garcia stated that he would like to reiterate Council Member Quan’s comments, that he met with the folks who oversaw the contract, and it was the second contract they had where they had not met their goal in the MWBE, that it was beyond a plan of action, that they had mentioned that they had taken action to address it the first time and obviously they did not meet it the second time.

Council Member Ellis stated that he did not have a problem with the contract as it was but did have a problem with it being put on the Council agenda when they knew they were under time constraints, it was something that the Brown administration did, always saying they could not tag an item or delay the item and so forth, so he would just request that under Mayor White’s administration that they leave some time built in, maybe a month or so, in case there were questions and discussions that had to be held on those items, that he knew every now and then there may be an emergency, and Mayor White stated that it was so noted and specifically would ask the Agenda Director to keep that comment in mind.

Council Member Berry stated that he would also ask that Wakenhut be before Council for some of the questions that other Council Members had, that hopefully they could get them to Council before the Aviation Committee in short order, that he thought a lot of the Council Members had some questions, that he wanted to echo Council Member Ellis’s concern if they could have time to look through the item a lot of the questions could be answered, and Mayor White stated that he appreciated the comments and in connection with that they recalled the question that he posed last time concerning the cost for a normalized eight hour FTE, that he had not forgotten the question.

Council Member Galloway stated that she concurred with her colleagues, Council Members Quan and Garcia and hoped that they did come up with a plan and would be monitoring the situation and knew that the Mayor said he wanted diversity in the contracts and hoped they would improve and come up with a plan for them.

Mayor White stated that he agreed with all of the comments made by Council Members.

A vote was called on Item No. 41. All voting aye. Nays none. ORDINANCE 2004-0064 ADOPTED.

Mayor White stated that various Council Members had been notified of the committee assignments and certain information should have been disseminated to the various Council Members, that he intended to have members of various City departments assign to be the points of contact for support of the various committees and had asked the Mayor Pro Tem, from time to time and as needed, to convene a meeting with the Chairs of the various Council committees to resolve any items concerning jurisdiction or support, such as the request for information or anything else, that to Council Member Edwards and those who were serving on her committee he would have answers to them concerning the inquiries they made concerning the staffers or support of resources from the administration and then as they felt it necessary they could get together and have a meeting with department heads with the members of the committee, that Council Member Edwards also asked what the role of the Vice-Chair was and he would say to a large extent it would depend what the Chair and Vice-Chair agreed that it would be, that specifically he had asked Council Member Edwards and members of the committee to focus on that portion of the issues considered by the committee which concerned the rules and regulations that effected development or new development that would have an impact on flooding, everything from water retention through the use of ground cover to detention requirements to an assessment of flood impacts if there were some places where building permits could or should not be issued because they were an inevitable impact, that he knew members of the committee would take into account their need as a city to grow and develop with the interest of the developers and seek active input from stakeholder groups as well as experts in the field, that he wanted to say in open Council so they were all clear, it was not a PR exercise, the Mayor and his administration knew that they could not just keep on doing stuff like they had done and expect things to change on flooding and drainage, that it was a complicated issue involving a balance of issues and they did intend to have dialog with committee chairs and the members, that it was not window dressing, that on the Fiscal Affairs Committee, which a number of Council Members were on, that Council Member Ellis was presiding over, he would like to get a recommendation from the committee on two items, that yesterday he received a briefing from HR concerning the extension of the Health Benefits Agreement which was extended last year from April 2004 to the following April, however there could be some modifications that were made in the plan or in the benefits as offered in that plan that would have an impact on both the services provided and the net cost to the City, that one of those which was not a matter of a fiscal impact that he would mention, would be to create a PPO option within the plan at no net cost to the City and that was an option that could be costed out explored, that the amount of the escalation year to year was substantial, 23%, and was really not acceptable when they considered all of the public service priorities that they had, and some means of mitigating the impact of that on the City employment and the public services would be to look at the percentage contributed by the City and City employees within the various ranges which had occurred over the last five to six years and look at other private employers and public employers and as they knew that amount had escalated just within the last six years, 82% to 88%, that just to give them an idea of the rough fiscal impact it was good to go to 85% and 15%, that would have an impact of say $5 million on the operating budget, which was a lot of goods and services or employment, that he would like to have a recommendation from the Fiscal Affairs Committee concerning what they would do on that particular feature as well as anything on co-payment, he wanted to insure City employees that the City wanted to be a fair and just employer, but it was based on the objective situation of the City’s benefits increasing and they did not want to have to chose, they wanted to be competitive with the private sector and did not have to make unnecessary choice between public services and employee benefits, and moreover he would ask the chair, that kind of amendment, if they decided to do that, he was not only asking for the committee to make a recommendation concerning the year policy plan April 1, 2004 through April 1, 2005, but if it was a change that should be made effective before that time, then make a recommendation, they knew that this years budget was at a minimum tight and that there may be some savings which they were going to have to find at the beginning of the next fiscal year, so if they needed to make the change in March 2004, if a change was recommended, to effect FY2004 Budget, he wanted the best guidance of the committee on that particular issue, and there was one other issue that had history and he was not familiar with all the history but would like to committee, which represented a diverse group of people, to make a recommendation concerning civilian employees take home vehicles as well, that it was a difficult issue and Council Member Ellis could set a timetable but some time in February, that he would say to his colleagues if there were any comments or information they wanted on the portion of the plan which would be the PPO that was something where the election notices would need to be given, he thought, within the next month or so, so absent some change in administration policy, that was a direction he gave yesterday to the HR Department.

Council Member Quan stated that he would suggest that the Mayor Pro Tem have a meeting of all the committee chairs so they could look at their calendars and set dates for the meetings, maybe an orientation for the new Council Members and Council Member Alvarado stated that she was agreeable to that.

MATTERS TO BE PRESENTED BY COUNCIL MEMBERS

Council Member Quan stated that he wanted to add his wishes for a Happy Chinese New Year and to thank Mayor White and Council Members Goldberg and Khan for coming out on Sunday to their Asian Heritage Day at City Hall where they celebrated with the musical “The Flower Drum Song”, that it was an outstanding event and believed the play really told a story of not just Asian immigrants but of all immigrants to the Country and the struggles that they had, that he wanted to mention all of the events that were happening in the community over the weekend, at 10:00 a.m. at the Chinese Community Center on Sovereign and at 11:00 a.m. at the Southern Chinese News Building, that the Year of the Monkey was a year that was characterized by people who were creative, witty, highly intelligent, interested in global affairs and should be a great year for business and industry and trade, that they looked forward to a great year in Houston with the Year of the Monkey. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Quan stated that his alma matter, Milby High School, was now rated number one in the State of Texas in basketball and number four in the Nation and wanted to congratulate the Milby High Basketball Team. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Berry stated that he wanted to commend the Mayor for taking on the health benefits and take home vehicles, that those were controversial and tough but thought the Mayor was getting to the root of how they were going to solve some of the problems. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Berry stated that as to Item Numbers 32 and 33 on the agenda dealt with Metro doing some things that the City of Houston did prior to Metro’s inception and probably could continue to do and knew there was a pendulum swing as to what the City and Metro did over the years, but he hoped the Mayor would look to their doing that in house in the future. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Berry stated that they had an intern in their office for a few weeks named Mr. Reed Simpson, who was a senior at Kinkaid High School and was about to have to leave them, that he had done a great job and scored a 1550 on his SAT and was off to Duke University, that they appreciated his service to the City. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Goldberg stated that he wanted to recognize one of the oldest City Departments, that the Library Department was celebrating their 100 year anniversary on Saturday and there would be a special dedication and special program and hoped that all Council Members and the public would attend at 500 McKinney, the Central Library, from 12:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Goldberg stated that he wanted to thank Council Member Quan for inviting him to see “The Flower Drum Song” and he also arranged for them, after the show, to meet the cast members, that the musical was outstanding and if they went they would not be disappointed. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Goldberg stated that he wanted to thank Mayor White who last Saturday came out to a program for the Big Brothers and Big Sisters, that it was their 100 year anniversary, that it was an outstanding organization, that the Mayor had some inspirational words and really uplifted the group and thanked him for coming out. Council Member Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Wiseman stated that she wanted to extend her gratitude to her colleagues for supporting the Ellington Field Resolution, that yesterday, at her request, the Houston Galveston Area Council took under consideration a resolution also to support Ellington Field and it passed unanimously, that cities throughout the region were passing resolutions in support of the effort, that it was vital for the region. Council Members Alvarado and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Wiseman stated that she wanted an update on the renovation of Fire Station 61, that originally the work was to take only four months and it had been almost a year so they wanted to know what the status was. Council Members Alvarado and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Wiseman stated that they had traffic lights in Kingwood that did not have a timing issue, that at the intersections of Kingwood and Woodland Hills Drive and Northpark and Woodland Hills Drive, those two streets were major arteries in Kingwood and handled a great deal of traffic and just about every week those lights during rush hour were flashing red creating backlog in traffic, that people had been told it was not an issue of timing that it was faulty equipment and nothing had been done to replace that equipment. Council Members Alvarado and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Wiseman stated that she visited with civic association representatives last night regarding issues in the South Belt area of her district and they had questions with regard to some development that had been under construction at Monroe and Almeda Genoa, apparently the developer had not put in the required retention ponds and they would like to find out why that was the case and find out what type of action could be taken on the City’s part. Council Members Ellis, Alvarado and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Wiseman stated that she had been hearing quite a bit with regard to billing errors from the Kingwood Community, that it appeared that water bills were being estimated for two months at a time and by the third month they were hit with a large bill, that people were contacting the Water Department and the Water Department was not denying that it was occurring, that it had been an issue with the Kingwood people since annexation and that was the issue of water bills, that there had been repeatedly raised the question of whether or not they were dealing with inequity in billing with respect to billing of the customers in the Kingwood area and that of customers throughout the rest of the City, those questions had remained for quite a number of years and they had tried to seek information and clarification on that and had not been able to do so, so she would respectfully request an audit of the billing department for the Customer Utility Service. Council Members Ellis and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Mayor White stated that each of her items were deserving of specific answers, that on the last one he asked if Council Member Wiseman meant that different rates were being used, and Council Member Wiseman stated that yes, a question remained with so many customers in Kingwood that there was an inequity with respect to the actual billing, that the amount of the water bills that customers were receiving in Kingwood were on average in the hundreds of dollars. Council Members Ellis and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Green stated that last week he was downtown on Saturday night and was at the corner of Preston and Main and there was a valet station and the valet attendant told him that the valet parking was full but they offered him the opportunity to pay $20 to park in the reserved spaces that they had set aside for valet loading and unloading, that he would like an update on that practice because if they were charging people $20 to park in City owned spaces maybe the City needed to visit some sort of fee to the valet companies. Council Members Ellis and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Alvarado stated that last year they passed the Valet Ordinance that regulated the Valet Industry and she wanted to get the name of the valet company, if he had that, because that was not allowed in the ordinance they passed. Council Members Ellis and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Goldberg stated that they had a problem when they were parking in the City’s parking meters and not putting the money in the meters so the people got the ticket and had to pay for the valet, that they needed to eliminate those companies that were doing that kind of stuff immediately. Council Members Ellis and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Edwards stated that she wanted to thank Mr. Vanden Bosch and Mr. Rick Grochoske for continuously being with them in their struggle on the Cambridge Bridge issue, that once again they were always at the community meetings fielding questions and being of assistance and support, that she also wanted to thank the Mayor’s office, a lot of times go running into projects that they did not know anything about and Ms. Young called their office regarding the Scott Street expansion and she appreciated her calling so she could get the history of what was going on and what they had been working with, that she wanted to say thank you for having them call first, that they appreciated her help and it was really gratifying for district people to have people call and ask what was going on and how could they help. Council Members Ellis and Sekula-Gibbs absent.
Mayor White asked if the issue was concerning the amount of right-of-way at the VA Hospital, and Council Member Edwards stated yes, that at the last meeting there was an informal presentation and Mr. Vanden Bosch had codified the informal presentation by a formal letter asking for in writing the VA’s recommendation, that it had not been resolved. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Edwards stated that at the CIP briefing she had asked where they were, especially on the projects that were current, that she could not move to new CIP programming and planning until she understood what was going on with the current CIP. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Edwards stated that last night she watched the State of the Union Address and the issue regarding “No Child Left Behind”, that whole program with the Education Department struck home to her because of the issues they were still having in her district and in District I, particularly Ryan Middle School, that she thought it was obscene that they could classify a school as low performing and do nothing to improve the environment, that she spoke in July 2002 regarding the conditions of Ryan Middle School and on July 16, 2002 a walk through was done of Ryan Middle School regarding the improvements that were needed, construction and so forth, and there was a commitment made to the community and to the City Council that those concerns would be dealt with, that HISD had a budget of $1.33 billion per year and for them to classify a school as low performing when in two years there were things that still were not done, that it was according to the parents and the officials at the school, that as of January 2004, no hot water in any of the restrooms to wash hands for either students or teachers, no gas, that the gas in the Science labs and teacher lab stations had not been reconnected, that they were supposed to replace carpeting in the main office and it had not been done, replace carpeting in the whole auditorium, paint the entire auditorium, paint the entry ways in the auditorium, repair broken steps in the auditorium, glue down the acoustic coverings on the walls of the auditorium, clean the drainage and courtyard areas to eliminate the flooding conditions and standing water, repair rotten wood in the cafeteria, replace the rusted awnings on the covered walkways leading to the cafeteria, refurbish the restrooms in the Home Economics area, install television brackets in all of the classrooms, refurbish the boys and girls locker rooms to include connecting of domestic hot water heaters for boys and girls showers, cleanup debris, reconnect water and gas to student stations in the Science Lab, replace all windows in the shop, that it went on and on, and then they say it was a low performing school, what kind of environment were they providing for their children to perform better, that they had good relationships with Ms. Stripling, but to hear the President talk about how the program was working and no child left behind and to declare low performing at Ryan, Yates and Jones, in her opinion, was the first step in eliminating that community, so one of the things she would like to see happen was that they put some meat to the rhetoric and if they were not going to leave a child behind and if they wanted their children to succeed nobody would go to work and accept those kind of conditions, that she did not understand it, they treated their children like the enemy and she was just saying they needed to do better by the children, she was not getting into micro management and who was principal and who was not principal, that she did not know how much money it took to bring in hot water to the school, that she thought they were all supposed to wash their hands before they ate and before they prepared food and after they went to the bathroom, that she was just making a plea to HISD and to the people who were in charge, that as she said it was as of January 13, 2004, if it was incorrect somebody needed to show her the corrections, but if it was correct then they needed to do better, that they needed to do better by their children and by their communities. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Lawrence stated that after last weeks agenda Public Works arranged for her to meet one of their pothole repair trucks out in the district and she wanted to say thank you, especially to Mr. James Carter, the truck driver, who let her get in the cab and they repaired one of the 60,000 potholes that they will prepare in the City within the next year, that it was a picture of automation and the way she was glad the City was moving. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.
Council Member Lawrence stated that she wanted to thank the IT Department for their help in restoring files that were erased from their computers and for all of the work they had done for all of the Council Members, that it had been a great service to work with them. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Lawrence stated that Harris County Flood Control was working with them in District A because of extreme flooding and they were partnering with some State legislators on a retention pond that would be going in during 2005 on Highway 290 east of 43rd Street, the golf course was going to have to change four holes and they met with the owners and the golf pro during the past weekend, that Harris County Flood Control was being very helpful in moving the T boxes and settling with the homeowners as far as buyouts, that she had a lot of appreciation for Harris County Flood Control and hoped they could continue to partner with those people and the State legislators and the County. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Garcia stated that whether it was Mexico, Central America, South America or any other part of the world when a natural disaster like an earthquake occurred Houston almost always seemed to be at the forefront of the issue, that it was especially gratifying to see Mayor White at the Iran Earthquake service that was held at the convention center and it was a huge impact on him and his family the devastation that the community felt, not only in the history that was lost but the lives that were lost was tremendous. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Garcia stated that he participated with several colleagues during the Martin Luther King Parade, and they were behind the Louisiana State Marching Band and it was really exciting and encouraging to see the diversity of the people enjoying the parade as well as the participants of the parade, that he wanted to thank Council Members Alvarado, Khan, Quan and Lawrence, that it was a great day. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Garcia stated that on Saturday evening he was at Saint Josephs Catholic Church for the Martin Luther King mass that was held and Bishop Fiorenza and Bishop Gillory were present and Bishop Gillory gave the homily and it was also just as moving as the parade and the event itself.

Council Member Garcia stated that he wanted to invite his colleagues to consider adding a float to the Northside March on Crime Parade that was to be held on March 6, 2004, that there was still room for plenty of floats or to walk it if they cared to do that, they would love to have them participate. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Holm stated that on March 10, 2004 the District G CIP meeting would be held at Westside High School and encouraged all representatives and constituents of District G to be there, but not to wait until that time, this was the time to start bringing forward any interests or issues that they had or concerns about or would like to address, that they could start doing that by calling their office at 713-247-2007 or emailing them at DistrictG@CityofHouston.net. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Holm stated that they were going to establish in their office a district neighborhood council which would be comprised of representatives from civic associations as well as various neighborhood communities, that Ms. Whitney Boles would be coordinating it, but the purpose of it would be for the different communities and neighborhoods to come together to work on common issues and goals as well as to be a resource to one another and then to prioritize as a district some of their issues and needs and concerns and would be really anxious as it developed to keep them apprised and what they hoped it would do was to empower the citizens of their district to be participants and supporters of the community. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Mayor White asked, especially of the veteran Council Members, if they shared his concern about something and if so what could they do about it, to take their time to respond, he was looking for advice, that he had been a little worried over the last several weeks that there may be, from time to time, put on the agenda, professional services contracts or contracts for the design or plan of something, where the amount that they had designed and planned and scoped out already exceeded the amount of money they may have in the Capital Improvement Budget for construction in the next couple of years, and if they had a design of something that was not going to be built for four years from now or later or who knows where the priorities may change in response to concerns in the neighborhoods if nothing else, that it was a lot of money, that the first thing he would say and was not asking a rhetorical question but would any colleagues who had been at the Council table and who had observed the process and looked at items crossing the agenda on those contracts, were there Council Members who shared his concern, and he was not asking for speeches or whatever. Mayor White further stated that when the relative department heads, the Department of Public Works and Building Services in particular, could prepare, but no later than two weeks, he would like to use a Mayor’s Report and at least have some kind of spreadsheet on what was the aggregate amount of design they had, just a rough estimate, if those projects were built what would they cost, and then they could compare those to what may be in the Capital Improvement Budget over a couple of years and they could decide at that point what an appropriate policy would be or criteria would be to slow down on the front end in engineering and design, if that was appropriate, at least they could have that briefing so all of the Council could be present in doing that, that he had no other agenda on that then just making sure, as well as health benefits, that he just wanted to make sure that they spent the taxpayers money wisely and not cut services or employees more than absolutely necessary if they had good stewardship of the taxpayers dollars. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Alvarado stated that she certainly appreciated the Mayor having a discussion in an open forum about those issues as well as the Council committees, that she thought it was very beneficial and was a healthy discussion for the Council Members. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Alvarado stated that she knew the 911 budget was delivered to all of the Council Members and the Mayor’s office, that she was going to continue to raise the issue as they looked at the budget and the presentation that was given by Dr. Scheps about the franchise fees that they received from the wire phones versus the wireless, there were some inequities there because more people were moving to wireless phones, and whether it was State or Federal law that they had to change it was going to continue to impact their budget, that Dr. Scheps stated that it was impacting their budget anywhere from $2 million to $4 million because of that franchise fee, that she just asked that they be conscious of that and keep in mind as they review the 911 budget and the City’s budget as well. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Kahn stated that he wanted to call their attention to something that was going on in the small business community stores, that on Monday after the Martin Luther King Parade the community buried Mr. Paul Savani who was killed on January 16, 2004 in a convenience store killing and it was a rash of killings that were going on in the last few months, that last time when something like this happened a few years ago, Mr. Brown and the City Council, especially Council Member Quan and Council Member Ellis raised the issues and a lot things were done at that time and with the help of Council Member Quan’s office HPD came out with a safety video which was distributed for some time to people who worked in the convenience store business, that convenience stores were convenient targets for crime, that there were five or six killings in just the past few months, that his request to the Mayor was as he was considering finding a new police chief to bring the killings as one of the criteria as to what they planned to do in the small and new store business, which was considered one of the most dangerous lines of work after the police and fire, that most of those people were hard working, honest, citizens, trying to make a living, that he would request a follow up with HPD, that people did not know what was going on in catching the criminal, that there was also some plan of victims assistance and many times family members saw that the process was very cumbersome, like funeral expenses were supposed to be reimbursed in a very timely fashion, also the process of releasing the body, that his request was that all of that should be looked into. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Mayor White stated that without going into details they would be getting more people on patrol in the call for service loop in certain parts of Houston, including southwest Houston, that has seen an enormous increase in crime and loss of response time, was something that just last Friday was an issue where he explored alternatives with the Chief and would continue to look at that and thought that there was some process. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.

Council Member Berry read a letter from a constituent complimenting Captain Dwayne Redding of the South Central Police Station. Council Members Galloway, Ells and Sekula-Gibbs absent.
