PROPOSED ORDINANCE TO BAN
ILICIT SYNTHETIC DRUGS
(“KUSH”)

Presented to Quality of Life Committee
By: David M. Feldman, City Attorney
September 18, 2014
A Brief Overview

• Kush (a.k.a. “K2” or “Spice”)
  – Originally marketed as a legal marijuana substitute
  – A mixture of herbs and spices that is typically sprayed with synthetic compounds that mimic the effects of controlled substances like ecstasy and meth
  – Up to 100 times more potent than THC (active ingredient in marijuana)

• Sold at small retail outlets and online

• Growing drug epidemic among young people

The Colorado Health Emergency Line for Public Information (COHELP) is a public support service sponsored by the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment.
Fatalities and Severe Injuries Attributed to Kush Use

• Tragedies involving teenagers:
  – Jumped off a balcony stating he could fly and died
  – Lost ability to walk, read, write, and perform basic math
  – Heart attacks
  – Institutionalized 17 times and attempted suicide 3 times over a 2 year period after smoking Kush
Severe Effects of Kush Usage

• Number of ER visits for Kush doubled from 2010 to 2011, increasing from 11,400 to 28,500 (nationwide)

• Almost 120 overdoses in 5 days (Dallas and Austin, May 2014)

• Over 100 people treated within weeks (Louisiana)

• 44 overdoses over 3 days (Manchester, N.H.)

• Between 17-25 overdoses in 1 night (Boston)
Texas State Law

• Current Texas state law is inadequate
  – Law based on specific chemical structures and effects (difficult to prove)
  – Manufacturers rapidly change the chemical structure to avoid legislation
  – Effective legislation under Texas state law requires continually listing new compounds
Evade State Law with Evolving Chemicals

- Houston Forensic Science Center Lab reports seeing 12 different compounds so far this year.

- Customs and Border Patrol reports seeing on average, 1 new compound every week.
