PGA Tournament in Memorial Park

- City of Houston has long demonstrated our ability to hold major events
  - Super Bowl, NCAA Final Four, Copa América, Freedom Over Texas
  - Results have been excellent and the City has shown well in national and international media
- Opportunity has come to us to host an annual PGA event in Memorial Park
  - Astros Golf Foundation has a five-year agreement with the PGA for October of each year
  - Astros proposal is to fully fund needed capital improvements on the course, estimated at $13 million
  - Would be only the second municipal golf course to hold a PGA annual tournament (Torrey Pines)
- Economic impact (consistent with previous studies) estimated at $50-90M annually
PGA Tournament in Memorial Park

- Further enhancements to Golf Clubhouse and Driving Range will be funded and provided by Astros Golf Foundation
  - This will come later and will be subject to Standards Committee approval

- The First Tee operation integral to City's long term engagement
  - Provides programs in 30 School Districts in the area, at 510 schools
  - Provides programs at 32 Houston Parks and Recreation facilities
  - HGA runs the programs and estimates 350,000 youth participated in 2018

PGA Tournament in Memorial Park

- Discussions have been ongoing with the City and Memorial Park Conservancy and other park funders since June 2018
  - Challenge has been construction on course to begin January 2019
  - Astros have engaged world class golf architect and developed conceptual plan
  - Memorial Park Standards Committee has met on proposal and agreed subject to condition that there is no impact on current park development plans

- Expect Council consideration of the following in December
  - Contract with Astros Golf Foundation to improve Memorial Park Golf course—focused solely on the course
  - MOU with Astros Golf Foundation to run the 10-day annual golf tournament

History Of Houston Open

- The Houston Open has been a PGA Tour event since 1946
- Since 1975, the tournament has been held outside of the City
- Attendance has averaged approximately 100,000 per year
- In 2017, the Houston Open lost its long-term Title Sponsor
- In 2018, the Houston Open lost its premier date on PGA Tour schedule
- The tournament was dying
- Jim Crane was approached by Mayor Turner and PGA Tour Commissioner Jay Monahan to help save the Houston Open
How Do We Return The Houston Open To Prominence?

- Move the tournament inside the City
- Improve Memorial Park Golf Course for all Houstonians
- Showcase the City on a national stage
- Improve Houston parks and give back to Houstonians
- Grow fan base through Houston Astros infrastructure
- Make the tournament a social event that is about more than golf
