Prior to providing volunteer feral hog relocation services, you should understand that records associated with this activity are subject to the Texas Public Information Act ("the Act"). Records related to complaints, communications between you, the City, complainants, and locations to which feral hogs are rendered may be made available to the public upon request pursuant to the Act unless such information is subject to an exception to public disclosure as provided in the Act. For more information on the Act, please reference this link: <https://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index.shtml>

Please also understand that your activities must comply with all City of Houston ordinances and State of Texas statutes. For more information, please see these resources:

Texas Health and Safety Code: Chapters 821, 822, 823, 826, 828, and 829; Texas Penal Code: sections 42.09, 42.092, 42.10, and 42.105 ; and Texas Administrative Code: Title 25, Part 1, Chapter 169 Zoonosis Control. To find out more about these codes, visit <http://www.statutes.legis.state.tx.us/> and http://info.sos.state.tx.us/pls/pub/readtac\$ext.viewtac. You can also visit Chapter 6 City of Houston Code of Ordinances for more information at www.municode.com/Library/TX/Houston.

By signing below, you affirm your understanding of the requirements of the Act. You also affirm that you indemnify the City of Houston related to your volunteer feral hog relocation activities.

Please note that your services cannot be endorsed by or affiliated directly with the City of Houston.
