Mayor's Disability Advocate of the Year Award

The Mayor's Disability Advocate of the Year Award seeks to recognize and honor the contribution of advocates who, through their volunteerism in the community, have provided a notable effort towards one or more of the following ways:

- Increasing the awareness of disability issues in the non-disabled Houston community.
- Working towards the resolution of a barrier to people with disabilities.
- One whose voice has effectively represented those who cannot represent themselves.

Each year two disability advocates from the City of Houston will be selected; one with a disability and one non-disabled. (On May 11, 2006 the HCOD added a "Junior" advocate category for individuals 18 years old and under) The awards are based on the virtue and impact of their work using the following:

Community Advocate (Disabled and Non-disabled)- recognizes the outstanding volunteer efforts of an individual dedicated toward improving conditions and opportunities in the Disabled community. In addition to an application, nominations for this award must include a biography highlighting the services rendered by the nominee for which this award is to be presented.

Youth Advocate - recognizes a young person no older than 18 years old for outstanding work in the community. This work should include selfless volunteer work exhibiting leadership qualities that will inspire our youth to become the future leaders and advocates for the Disabled community.
