FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 14, 2009

CONTACT: Alicia White, HFD Public Affairs, 713-495-7906

HFD HONORS "NEIGHBORHOOD HEROES"

WHAT: The Houston Fire Department will honor "Neighborhood Heroes" who have made a true impact with the HFD and/or citizens of Houston.

WHEN: Thursday, January 15, 2009 at 6:30p.m.

WHERE: Houston Fire Museum, 2403 Milam

DETAILS: Every year, the Houston Fire Department recognizes citizens, groups and other entities as "Neighborhood Heroes". These heroes are individuals or groups who have made major contributions to the Houston Fire Department and as well as citizens who have displayed courageous acts to come to the aid of their family member, friend or stranger in the time of an emergency.

This year, the "Heroes" include several large corporations that have adopted HFD Fire Stations or have formed partnerships with the department to promote safety, citizens who have assisted the HFD with numerous projects and Justina Page who founded The Amos House of Faith, a non-profit organization created to provide special support to those who have been affected by burns in Houston, Texas and surrounding areas.
