FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MARCH 20, 2009

CONTACT: HFD PUBLIC AFFAIRS, 713-495-7906

Reminder! Houston's Bravest Remembered at Annual Ceremony Tomorrow

WHAT: Houston firefighters who are "gone, but not forgotten" will be honored during the Annual Houston Firefighters' Memorial Ceremony.

WHEN: Saturday, March 21, 2009 at 10 a.m.

WHERE: Houston Firefighters' Memorial Garden, Houston Firefighters Relief and Retirement Fund, 4225 Interwood North Parkway.

DETAILS: The annual ceremony recognizes not only those members who have passed away in the line of duty, but also every Houston firefighter who is "gone, but not forgotten." The ceremony takes place in the beautiful garden located on Pension Fund property paying tribute to all firefighters. The garden includes pavers, benches, the "Wall of Honor" and a breathtaking statue ("The Rescue").

Channel 13's Casey Curry will be the Master of Ceremonies, with special remarks by Mayor Bill White and keynote speaker and supporter of the ceremony, Edd Hendee a host on KSEV Radio and a founder of Taste of Texas Restaurant.

All HFD members, retirees, family and friends are invited.
