

Houston Department of Health and Human Services

Charles X. White
CEO
Charity Productions

Speaker Biography

Charles X White is the CEO for Charity Productions since 1984 and during that time has authored several articles on gangs, drugs, parent engagement as well as articles on civic engagement. Charles is a certified instructor for ICS courses. This conference has evolved from a workshop on hurricane season in 1997 to a full scale all hazard conference on public health and safety in 2011. Charles has been working on public safety and health issues over 20 years in various capacities as a consultant or service provider with City of Houston Health, Police and Fire Departments, Houston ISD, Beaumont and Port Arthur Police Departments, Beaumont ISD, as well as holding Memorandum of Understandings and collaborations with Texas Southern University School of Public Affairs, Texas A&M College of Architecture, and University of Houston School Education.