

Houston Department of Health and Human Services

Speaker Biography

Richard Retz
Master Peace Officer, Houston Police Department
Mayor's Office of Public Safety and Homeland Security

Richard Retz is a Master Peace Officer and TCLEOSE Instructor with over 30-years of service with the City of Houston Police Department. He is currently assigned to the Mayor's Office of Public Safety & Homeland Security, which acts as the principal liaison with State and Federal partners responsible for the coordinated development and implementation of regional strategies to improve the area's homeland security posture.