

Dear Housing Partners:

There continues to be good news in Houston's affordable housing market and we want to share some of it with you. Please join us at a special Housing Forum on Thursday, November 15. The primary goal is to inform and update people about the latest affordable mortgage products, programs offered by leading lenders and the city's assistance program for potential homebuyers.

It is a great opportunity to network with more than 500 professional stakeholders (lenders, Realtors, builders, community housing development organizations, and housing counselors).

I hope to see you there.

Mayor Bill White
