Ins and Outs of City Contracting

Soliciting business from the City or prime contractors can be a rewarding experience: understanding the procurement process, marketing your business, and conducting research are key components to success. The following are some suggestions that can help you secure City contracts.

I. GET A VENDOR NUMBER
All suppliers and contractors interested in bidding on products and services procured by the City of Houston, Strategic Purchasing Division, must complete and submit a Supplier Registration Form to receive a vendor number.
- The Supplier Registration Form can be submitted online through the City’s Strategic Purchasing Division website at https://purchasing.houstontx.gov/, under the Supplier Registration Information section.
- Vendor numbers can be obtained in person from the Strategic Purchasing Division, 901 Bagby, Room B-120, in the basement of City Hall.

II. LOOK FOR OPPORTUNITIES

The Strategic Purchasing Notice to Bidders is available from the following resources:
- Each Friday, bid advertisements appear in the “Notice to Bidder” section of the Houston Business Journal. Some bid advertisements may be found in the Sunday edition of the Houston Chronicle.
- Bids are publicly posted according to State Statute and Charter provision. Bids for supplies and nonprofessional services are posted in the basement reception area of City Hall, 901 Bagby, Room B120.
- Bid advertisements appear weekly on the Municipal Access Channel. (TCI and Warner Cable TV).
- Bids and Requests for Proposals are available online at https://purchasing.houstontx.gov/, under the Formal Bids & RPF’s section.

For more information about Bids or RFP’s attend pre-bid and pre-proposal conferences to meet potential prime contractors:
- Schedule of pre-bid and pre-proposal conferences can be found on the City’s Strategic Purchasing Division’s web site at https://purchasing.houstontx.gov/.
- Contact successful low bidders to show how you can help them meet the MWSBE/PDBE and DBE goals.

For Professional Service Providers:
- Find the City departments that utilize your service. Call the Mayor’s Office of Business Opportunity Division at (832) 393-0600 for further assistance.
- Architects and Engineers (A&E) should go to 611 Walker, 5th Floor, to pick up form PWE-100 for inclusion in the City’s A&E database. This document can also be found online at http://documents.publicworks.houstontx.gov/documents/a-e_quals/pwe100in.pdf.
- Contact the City department to let them know what you do and request to be included on the Request for Proposal (RFP) list.

III. SUBMIT A BID OR PROPOSAL
Before submitting a bid or proposal, make sure all specifications are met.
- Read everything and make certain that your goods or services meet City specifications.
- Sign your bid and turn your bid/offer in on time. (No exceptions for late responses).
- If you are unsuccessful, keep trying. Go to the City Secretary’s Office (City Hall Annex, Public Level, 900 Bagby) to review the successful bidder’s submission to be better prepared next time.

IV. Hire Houston First
Businesses interested in becoming eligible to participate in the Hire Houston First program must complete the application.
- Application may be received by mail to Houston Business Solution Center, 611 Walker, Lobby Level, Houston, TX 77002.
- Applications may be submitted via e-mail to HoustonBSC@houstontx.gov or faxed to 832.393.0650.
