Days & Times I might be available:

I am interested in (check any):
 observing & recording data about the bats
 giving brief presentations to public & answering questions about bats assisting team members in locating additional bat roosts/bridges in the Houston area

Houston Bat Team volunteers are expected to attend a training session and work with an experienced team member first. NOTE: Please realize that your participation will require time in the evenings or on weekends, depending on which project duties you select, and will occur in the proximity of live bats.
