Mayor Parker Makes Juneteenth Announcement About Donations for Renovation of Emancipation Park

The Houston Endowment, Kinder Foundation & the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department have collectively donated $5 million to the Emancipation Park Capital Campaign. The announcement came during the Friends of Emancipation Park's annual Juneteenth celebration.

"In 1872, 4 men, all former slaves, pooled their money to buy this 10 acres of land," said Mayor Annise Parker. "It has always been a place that symbolizes freedom. Now, on a day that we gather where so many others have gathered in the past to celebrate freedom, we are also able to say thank you & celebrate the generosity of others. Because of their donations, this park is one step closer to becoming the beautiful historical showplace that it was always meant to be for the Third Ward & the City."

The cost of the Emancipation Park Capital Campaign Project totals $33.6 million. This covers ALL project costs from Planning & Pre-Design through construction, including acquisition, architectural & engineering design fees, design contingency (potential construction phase design changes), construction management, surveys, testing, asbestos & lead abatement, & support costs including legal fees & program management. This expanded & refined the $18 million dollar draft Budget Summary of the Pre-Design Report released in August of 2011.

"For 140 years, because of the foresight of the founding fathers, Emancipation Park has served as a gathering place for Juneteenth celebrations," said Joe Turner, Director, Houston Parks & Recreation Department. "Today, we are asking Houston to help us pool our money to fund the renovation of this great historic park."

The funding received from Houston Endowment ($2 million dollar grant), Kinder Foundation ($2 million dollar grant) & Texas Parks & Wildlife Department ($1 million dollar grant) will be added to $2 million in CIP funding from the City of Houston & the projected $19 million from OST/Alameda Corridors Tax Increment Redevelopment Zone (TIRZ #7). Additional fund raising will be required to reach the $33.6 million dollar goal & may be sent to Houston Parks Board Emancipation Park Capital Campaign.

Partnering agencies include: The OST/Alameda Corridors Redevelopment Authority (TIRZ #7), The Friends of Emancipation Park, The Houston Parks Board, Houston Endowment, Kinder Foundation, & the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department.
