Groundbreaking Ceremony Celebrates $1 Million Plus in Renovations For Grady Park

The Houston Parks and Recreation Department will be joined by Marathon Oil Corporation, Uptown Houston TIRZ #16 and City Council Member Oliver Pennington for a groundbreaking ceremony at Grady Park (1700 Yorktown) at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, September 10, 2015. The event celebrates a $1 million plus renovation project slated for Grady Park.

The project scope of work will include refurbishing and realigning the decomposed granite trail, regrading the open space, installing new drain inlets, creating three entry portals into the park, installing a new decorative fence along Yorktown and along San Felipe, relocating the basketball court, relocating the existing playgrounds, installing two new concrete seat walls, installing new site furnishings and installing new trees/irrigation system. The project is expected to be completed in March 2016.
