

URBAN GARDEN PROGRAM

Houston Parks and Recreation Department Urban Garden Program

Do you like to garden or are you interested in learning about gardening?

This community garden is part of the Houston Parks and Recreation Department's Urban Garden Program.

This program provides the opportunity for participants to learn about gardening as well as an opportunity to grow vegetables at a community garden.

Participation is free and participants are welcome to take some of the produce home for you and your family.

For more information about gardening at this location please speak with the garden coordinator or community center manager in the office.

For more information on the Urban Garden Program, or if you have any questions or concerns, please contact Matthew Abernathy, Urban Garden Manager, via e-mail: theurbangardener@houstontx.gov
