

Media Alert

March 8, 2017

CONTACT: Estella Espinosa
Work: (832) 395-7022
Cell: (832) 465-4782
estella.espinosa@houstontx.gov

Meadowcreek Village Park Pavilion Opens for Fun and Exercise

The Houston Parks and Recreation Department and City Council Member Dave Martin, District E, invite Houstonians to the grand opening of the newly constructed pavilion at Meadowcreek Village Park, 5333 Berry Creek, 77017. The new pavilion replaces one built in 1961. The ribbon cutting event will take place at 5:00 p.m., Thursday, March 9, 2017.

WHO: Dave Martin, Council Member, District E
Joe Turner, Director, Houston Parks and Recreation Department
Neighbors in the Meadowcreek Village area
Cub Scout Pack 216

WHAT: Ribbon Cutting Ceremony
Meadowcreek Village Park Pavilion

WHEN: Thursday, March 9, 2017
5:00 p.m.

WHERE: Meadowcreek Village Park
5333 Berry Creek
Houston, TX 77017

The scope of work for the new pavilion includes: pavilion construction; lighting; basketball goals; associated drainage; landscape improvements. The new pavilion features steel arches nearly 24' high that weigh close to a ton each. The basketball court is sized for high school play with benches and a water fountain adjacent to it. The project budget was $1,013,280.00, which includes design, construction, contingency, civic art, and materials testing.

Meadowcreek Village Park has been part of the Houston Parks and Recreation Department since December 1955.

The Houston Parks and Recreation Department (H.P.A.R.D.) stewards and manages over 37,851 acres of parkland and greenspace for the City of Houston and develops and implements recreational programming for citizens of all abilities. For more information on the Houston Parks and Recreation Department, call (832) 395-7022 or visit www.houstontx.gov/parks.