To whom it may concern.

I'm writting this letter first of all to opologise for any inconvinience, and to explain the reason why I installed my windows first of all because of Protection towards my family I had Some broken windows and as it might be on records they had broken into my house in the pass. second cause of health the windows inthis house they were very old and I notice they had mold and very old rust I didn't think they were safe for me and my family. I want to explain that before ~~I~~they installed the windows I did went to try to get a permit at the City of Houston I was unaware that I had to go threw yall first and for that Im sorry.

Sincerly
