

Employment/Unemployment Trend

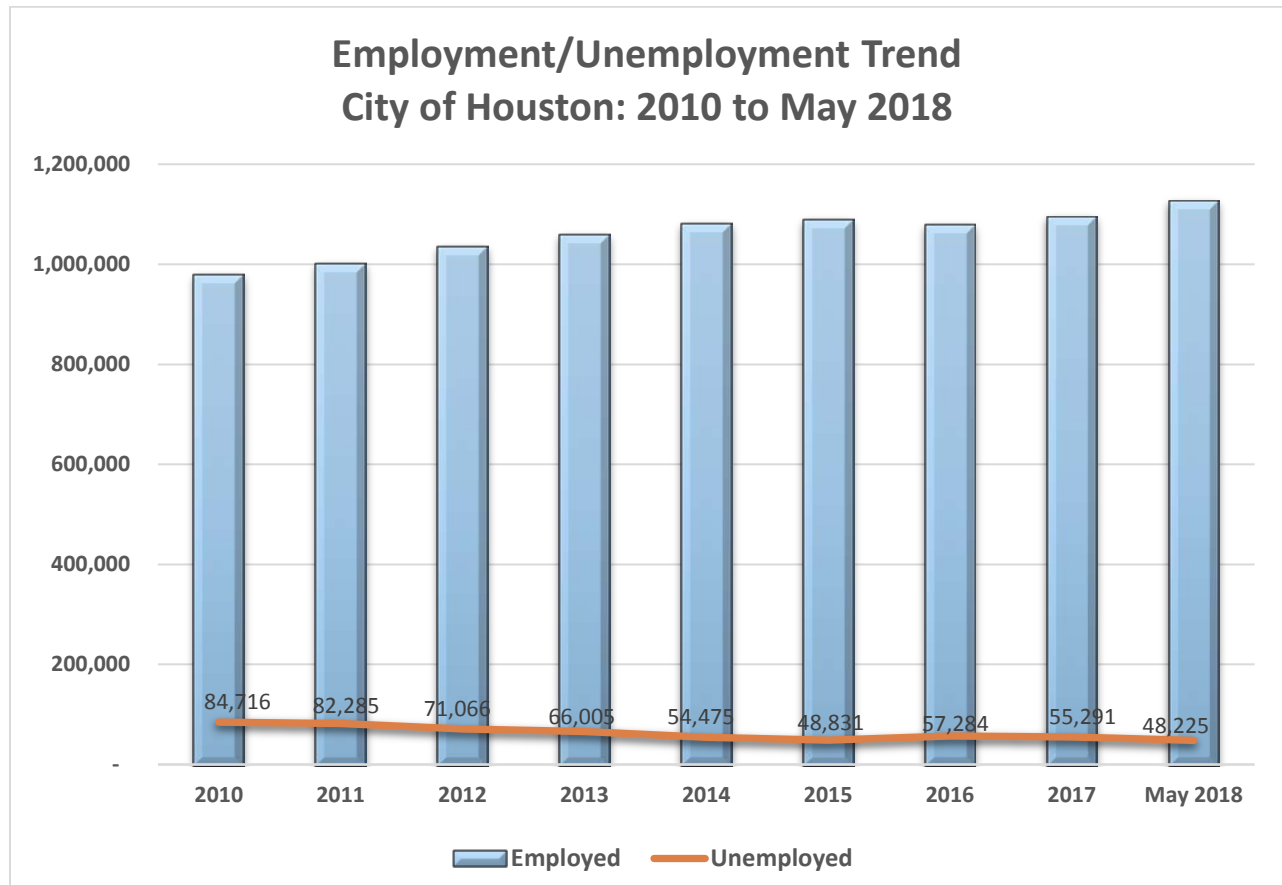

City of Houston: 2010 to May 2018

PLANNING &
DEVELOPMENT
DEPARTMENT

Source: Texas Workforce Commission; 2018

Date: June 2018

- The total number of unemployed fell by 76% (or 36,491) between 2010 (annual) and May 2018.
- According to the Greater Houston Partnership report, "Since January '10, the region has added more than 596,100 jobs, more than the current employment for the New Orleans (585,800 jobs) or Hartford (580,200 jobs) metro areas".
- Note: Data is for persons 16 years and older who are in the Labor Force.
- Source: Texas Workforce Commission; TRACER Data Link 2018