POLICY AND PROCEDURE

INTRODUCTION

The Houston Police Department (HPD) recognizes that law enforcement and public safety reflect community-wide concerns, and thus must actively seek the involvement of citizens in all aspects of policing. The Police and Clergy Alliance (PACA) allows local clergy volunteers in partnership with HPD to provide valuable services and resources in areas such as responding to call-out situations where they can offer support to victims and their families, participate in ride-alongs to personally experience what police officers are faced with on a daily basis, visit apartment complexes and schools to mentor at-risk students or those needing additional guidance in their lives, assist with disaster relief efforts, and other significant events occurring within the city limits of Houston.

POLICY

The mission of the Houston Police Department is to prevent crime, enforce the law, and preserve the peace. HPD recognizes the importance of and the critical role that faith-based organizations and clergy have as leaders in the community. HPD’s Clergy Liaison Unit will actively communicate with department personnel and the community at-large to effectively disseminate information related to PACA, and will continuously work to improve the response to significant events in which this partnership is utilized.

GOAL I:

To restructure and rejuvenate the relationship with HPD, all faith-based organization volunteers seeking to work with department personnel must abide by the policies and guidelines set forth in this document and any subsequent policies that may be established by HPD.

Objectives:

1. Periodic presentations will be conducted at HPD’s Training Academy
2. Periodic presentations at local churches or other venues
3. Active recruitment of volunteers
4. Members will participate in the PACA Academy
5. Members will complete all training requirements and other volunteer services (e.g., ride-alongs, mentoring, etc.) to obtain or maintain the department’s identification badge

GOAL II:

To further demonstrate the commitment of HPD’s community oriented policing philosophy

Objectives:

1. Establish community and business partnerships with assistance from PACA volunteers
2. Use department and community resources when appropriate
3. Work cooperatively with citizens, businesses, and PACA volunteers
4. Develop call-out procedures to be maintained by the Command Center
5. Develop PACA policy and procedures
6. Develop PACA training pamphlets

MISSION STATEMENT

The Police and Clergy Alliance will provide an effective approach to foster relations with the citizens of Houston by building trust and encouraging enhanced levels of community participation, as HPD strives to improve the quality of community life by addressing law enforcement and other significant issues which reflect community-wide concerns.

POLICE AND CLERGY ALLIANCE MEMBERS

The Police and Clergy Alliance (PACA) is comprised of a diverse group of volunteer clergy who represent various faiths and religious beliefs, as well as lay people willing to abide by all City Ordinances and HPD policies.

DEFINITIONS:

Significant Event: Any event that will likely result in substantial media or public attention, or may require additional administrative action.

Police and Clergy Alliance (PACA): Individuals who have successfully completed the PACA Academy and all other required training who are actively working with HPD to achieve the listed goals and objectives.

Clergy: For the purpose of PACA, clergy includes a collective body of lay and ordained men and women from all religious beliefs.

Divisional Clergy Liaison (DCL): HPD Division Commander or any officer so appointed to coordinate meetings, events, and call-outs with the Clergy Liaison Unit and the PACA Divisional Liaison (PDL).

Clergy Liaison Unit (CLU): Classified employees assigned to the Clergy Liaison unit of the Public Affairs Office.

PACA Divisional Liaison (PDL): Responsible for coordinating meetings, events, and call-outs with the Clergy Liaison Unit and the DCL. It is fully acknowledged that resources, abilities, circumstances and availability of PACA members may be such that an immediate response is not possible. In cases where no immediate response can be rendered, follow-up efforts should be made to ensure that the citizens/victims involved are provided the appropriate support (e.g., prayer, counseling, referrals) as soon as practical.
PROCEDURES:

Significant Events:

- During or in the aftermath of a significant event, a member of the Clergy Liaison Unit or Divisional Clergy Liaison concludes that a person associated with the incident (i.e., victim, witness, suspect, family member, etc.) may benefit from outreach from clergy members of PACA, notification will be made utilizing the established call-out procedure. Notifications may occur at anytime, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. In an effort to avoid the duplication of responses in locations such as hospitals or other facilities where citizens have a pre-existing association with a chaplain or other ministerial support, every effort should be made to use the pre-existing faith-based services in lieu of contacting a member of PACA.

- Notification is to be made via telephone by the Clergy Liaison Unit designee or the Divisional Clergy Liaison to the PACA Divisional Liaison. Upon receipt of notification, and if resources permit, the PACA Divisional Liaison shall either respond personally or delegate a response to the appropriate PACA member. If no response is possible at that time, the PACA Divisional Liaison shall notify the Clergy Liaison Unit designee and make follow-up efforts to ensure services are provided as soon as practical.

- In the aftermath of a significant event involving police personnel (sworn or civilian), members of PACA may be called to provide necessary services. The notification procedure described above will be utilized.

Community Unrest:

- As leaders within the community and their respective congregations, clergy members have an inherent level of credibility and the ability to communicate to vast numbers of citizens. In the aftermath of a significant event that leaves a community in a state of unrest, PACA members can assist the police in deterring subsequent or retaliatory acts of violence through timely and accurate dissemination of information. PACA access to police leaders will reinforce their credibility within the community.

- As soon as facts of a significant event with the potential to create community unrest can be legally released to the general public, HPD’s Public Information Officers (PIO) will work with PACA members to disseminate accurate information.

Youth Outreach:

- The Outreach Committee will seek opportunities to intervene with youth and their families prior to and after their involvement with the criminal justice system through programs such as the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Houston, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Teen Court.

- The Outreach and Education & Training Committees will develop, and periodically update, a guide of available resources and services offered through PACA, HPD, and
• Following the arrest of a juvenile, the HPD Juvenile Division may provide the parent or guardian a copy of the resource guide. Parents/guardians will be encouraged to utilize the services offered by PACA.

PACA Ride-Alongs: PACA member ride-alongs with uniformed personnel in marked police vehicles will be in accordance with HPD General Order 600-32, Ride-Along Program.
