Many members in HFD have made a mistake and gotten a DWI/DUI. However, the Dept. Head is able to grant a One Time exception toward those with a DWI, per page 6 of City Assigned Vehicles Guideline. Many employees, with a DWI/DUI can and do drive vehicles for the city currently. However, a felony with a motor vehicle, such as Vehicular Manslaughter, has no such exceptions listed in the guidelines. Since an employee can't be hired with a felony, such as Vehicular Manslaughter which is a felony involving a motor vehicle, how would such employee still be allowed to keep his job with HFD.

Since Dept head can provide a exception to the DWI/DUI issues, And since the dept head also imposes discipline based on work history, circumstances and other circumstances, ~~question~~ B and C are correct answers.

Answer A is also correct if granted an exception and the [3] infra's are not within a 18 month period.

So, the question should be removed, given to all applicants or answers ~~B and C~~ B and C made correct.
