To: All Candidates

Subject: Campaign Contributions

Attached is a copy of Chapter 18 of the Code of Ordinances. A summary of some key provisions follows:

- Personal Financial Statement: Candidates will be required to file a comprehensive personal financial statement on or before September 11, 2023, with the City Secretary. See §145.004(c), Texas Local Government Code. The statement will cover the period from January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2022. See Article III of Chapter 18, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES.
- Campaign Treasurer Appointment: State law requires candidates to file campaign treasurer appointments before they file an application for a place on the ballot, raise or spend any money for their campaign, or announce their candidacy publicly or privately. You can find information on how to file a campaign treasurer appointment here: <https://www.houstontx.gov/campaignfinance/faq.html>.
- Campaign Finance Reports: Campaign finance reports are due 30 days before the election (Monday, October 10, 2023) and 8 days before the election (Monday, October 30, 2023). Campaign finance reports must be filed electronically, unless the filer is exempt pursuant to section 18-103(c) of the City of Houston Code of Ordinances. The electronic filing system can be found here: <http://www.houstontx.gov/campaignfinance/>. You can find answers to frequently asked questions regarding campaign finance here: <https://www.houstontx.gov/campaignfinance/faq.html>.
- Political contributions may not be delivered or accepted in any city owned or operated building or facility. See §18-32, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES.
- Political contributions may not be solicited on behalf of any candidate by any member of the following boards or commissions who is appointed to the board or commission by the City of Houston, nor may candidates accept political contributions that were solicited by such persons (see §18-33(a), (b), CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES):

- Solicitation of political contributions by City employees during their work hours is restricted. See §18-33(c), CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES.
- The acceptance of political contributions from persons who have litigation pending against the City is restricted. See §18-34, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES.
- The acceptance of political contributions from City contractors is restricted. See §18-36, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES, the definitions of “contract award period” and “contractor” in §18-36, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES, and the definitions of “contract” and “contractor” in §18-2, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES. It is necessary to check the weekly City Council agendas in order to determine which persons may not make political contributions at any given time. Additionally, the City Secretary maintains and posts a contractor list to assist candidates with compliance.
- The City of Houston amended the limitations on political solicitations and contributions in 2016. Candidates for City office are no longer restricted on when they can raise funds and solicit contributions, except for the limitation on contractor contributions during the contract award period.
- Contribution Limits: There is a contribution limit of $5,000 per contribution cycle for contributors other than political committees, and a contribution limit of $10,000 per contribution cycle for political committees, including “coordinated campaign expenditures.” See §§18-31 (defining “contribution cycle”), 18-38, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES. Leading up to and through the November 7, 2023 general election, the contribution cycles run as follows:
  - January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2023
  - For run-off candidates from the November 7, 2023 general election: November 8, 2023 through December 31, 2023
  - January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2025

The foregoing is intended only as a summary. It is the responsibility of each candidate to comply with local and state election laws. Each violation of the City of Houston Code of Ordinances is punishable by a penal fine of up to $500 and continuing violations are a separate offense for each day. See §§18-41, 1-6, CITY OF HOUSTON CODE OF ORDINANCES.
