

GENERAL FUND RESOURCES SUMMARY

The General Fund is the City of Houston's largest operating fund. With total resources of $2.7 billion budgeted in FY2021, this fund relies heavily on various forms of revenue to finance its operations. As illustrated below, approximately 72% percent of the total resources in the General Fund are from taxes, mainly property and sales taxes.

Taxes

Property Taxes

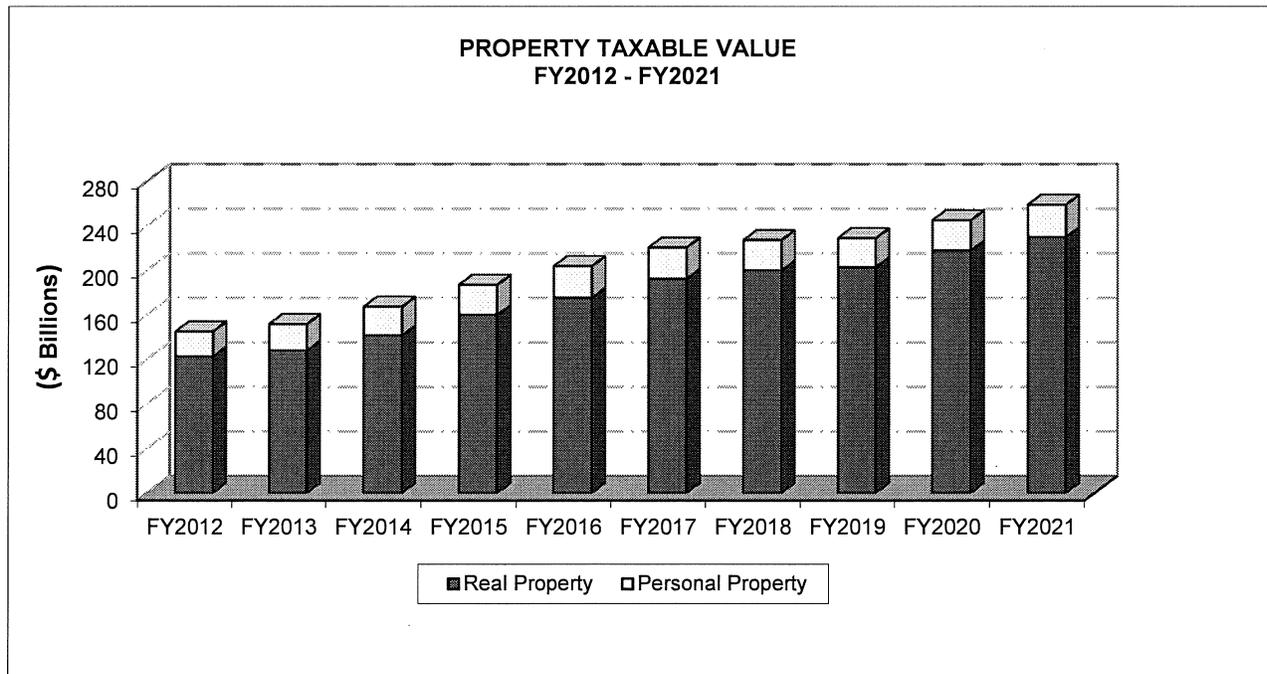

General property taxes are ad valorem taxes levied on the assessed valuation of real and personal property. Taxable values for all real and personal property within the City, depending on their locations, are established by the Harris County Appraisal District (HCAD), Montgomery County Appraisal District (MCAD) or Fort Bend County Appraisal District (FBCAD), collectively County Appraisal Districts (CAD), based upon market values as of January 1st. City Council approves exemptions such as homestead, 65 and over, disabled as well as Freeport exemptions and then sets a tax rate according to the state law. The current tax rate for Tax Year 2019 (FY2020) for the City of Houston is 56.792 cents per $100 of taxable value.

Based upon the adopted tax rate set by Council and taxable value as assessed by CAD, tax bills are generated and sent to taxpayers by the Harris County Tax Office around mid-November. Payment is due by January 31st of the following year. Taxes not paid by the due date are delinquent and subject to penalties and interest charges. Taxpayers who wish to appeal values set by CAD may do so if taxes on the uncontested value are paid timely.

Occasionally, taxes are overpaid as a result of errors in appraisal or an overpayment by a taxpayer. The Harris County Tax Office refunds such payments based upon the Texas Property Tax Code and documentation supplied by the taxpayers. Fluctuations in collections reflect changes in assessed property values, collection efforts, and tax rate.

The FY2021 property tax value is based on the Certified Estimate provided by CAD to the City on April 30, 2020 is $259.4 billion, which is net of the current senior/disabled exemption of $160,000. The estimated taxable value is then reduced by the estimated incremental value of properties within the Tax Increment Reinvestment Zones (TIRZ). The taxable value net of TIRZ is estimated at $223.6 billion.

Below is a graph showing the ten-year history of property taxable values in Houston, with the $259.4 billion estimate shown for FY2021.

Property Tax Collections

In November 2004, Proposition No. 1 was passed amending the City Charter to limit the annual increase in total ad valorem tax revenues. The increase is capped at the lower of the increase in Consumer Price Index (CPI) plus the growth in population or 4.5% over the prior fiscal year. In addition, in November 2006, Proposition H was passed to further increase the applicable revenue limitations by $90 million.

The FY2021 property tax revenue estimate is derived according to Proposition 1 and Proposition H. The Finance Department applied the 2019 inflation rate of 1.2712% and population estimate as of 7/1/2019 of -0.2251% to arrive at a net revenue estimate of $1.23 billion. This revenue is approximately 1.5% higher than the estimated FY2020 revenue of $1.22 billion. The property tax rate will be adjusted accordingly to levy revenues no higher than the Proposition 1 and Proposition H limitation.

The Proposition 1 and Proposition H revenue limitation is calculated with the following assumptions.

Sales Tax

General sales and use taxes are imposed upon the sale or consumption of certain goods and services at the point of sale. In the City of Houston, a $0.0825 sales and use tax is applied for every dollar of sales. The Metropolitan Transit Authority (METRO) receives $0.01, and the State of Texas receives $0.0625. The State Comptroller remits a $0.01 share to the City, after withholding a 2% service charge.

The sales tax projections are derived from econometric models which take into account the sectors of the Houston economy and estimates of employment, income, oil prices, population, and Primary Metropolitan Statistical Area (PMSA) retail sales.

The FY2021 budget amount of $675 million is approximately $5 million, or 0.7% lower than FY2020 estimated amount of $680 million. This estimate is relatively conservative due to the nature of the Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic that is affecting our national and global economy. This estimate is also supported by the uncertainty of how federal government assistance will impact the economy as well as the path of oil prices. Employment is the key driver of sales tax revenue, including consumer sales and business to business sales. Historically, the sales tax has responded in an immediate manner to changes in our employment growth and/or decline. The energy exploration and drilling boom has come to a halt, and while Houston's economy has diversified, it is still strongly tied to energy. Pre COVID-19, the City had experienced a modest growth in sales tax in FY2020 and anticipated another conservative 2% growth in FY2021. As a result of COVID-19, the City has experienced a cumulative estimated loss in sales tax revenue of almost $100 million during both FY2020 and FY2021.

Dr. Gilmer and the Greater Houston Partnership have projected Houston's worst-case scenarios based on incomplete information since data on receipts lags by two months. Instead of the usual forecasting methods used, estimates are more illustrative in nature due to the uncertainty around stay-at-home orders and unemployment. Dr. Gilmer's report mentions approximately 250,000 lost jobs, and although this information is meaningful, the projections are hypothetical. The uncertainty about stay-at-home orders also contributes to the illustrative nature of the estimates, especially not knowing how long those orders could last or if they could be re-imposed if another spike in Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) cases emerges. Until more information is known about the severity of this pandemic, the report does not provide significantly accurate projections.

The following graph provides a seven-year comparison of the City's Sales Tax revenue.

Industrial District Assessments

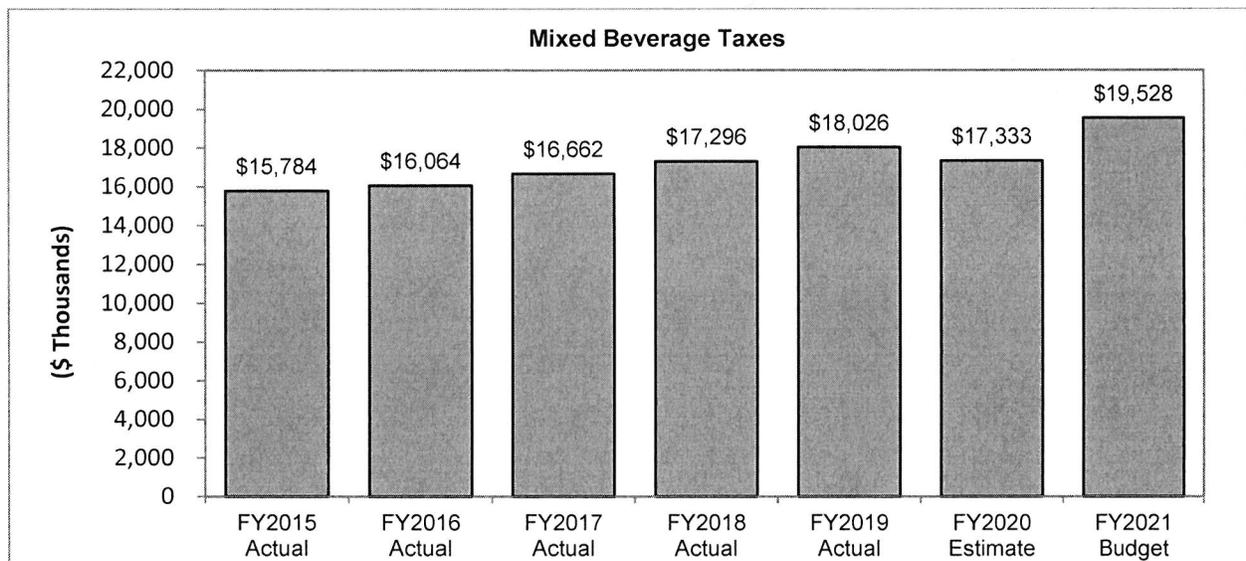

The City of Houston has Industrial District Contract Agreements with more than 100 companies located within the Houston Extra-Territorial Jurisdiction (ETJ), for a period of fifteen years. A contractually reduced ad valorem assessed valuation fee is calculated and billed annually to each company in lieu of the property being annexed and subject to City of Houston property taxes. Industrial District Assessments are based on current year property values provided by HCAD. The City expects to collect $19.3 million in FY2021.

Mixed Beverage Tax

Following the end of each calendar quarter, the State Comptroller allocates 10.7143% of the mixed beverage tax received to the counties and cities.

Mixed beverage tax allocation amounts are dependent upon the timing and accuracy of taxpayer's returns and payments, but generally represent taxes remitted to the Comptroller's Office during the calendar quarter immediately preceding the month the allocation is distributed.

The FY2020 estimate is lower than FY2019 actuals due to COVID-19. For the FY2021 budget, we are anticipating the revenue estimate of $19.5 million reflecting the trend in recent years. The following graph shows the seven-year comparison of the City's mixed beverage tax revenue.

Franchise Fees

Franchise fees are paid by companies, entities, or persons for the privilege of using public property for private purposes. Franchise agreements have been granted to numerous utilities and other enterprises, either directly by the City of Houston or by the State of Texas, including CenterPoint Energy, AT&T, several cable television firms, and others.

Changes in franchise revenue depend on many factors including economic fluctuations, rate charges, customer usage, franchise agreement changes and legislative actions. In FY2020, franchise revenue for cable and telephone decreased as a result of Texas Senate Bill 1152. This impacts the amount of compensation the local municipalities receive from companies that are occupying the rights-of-way to provide both cable/video services and telecommunications services by allowing these providers to pay only one fee.

Electric Franchise

Electric franchise fees are paid to the City for the right to conduct an electric light and power business and to use the City's rights-of-way for that business.

There are two companies in Houston that pay electric franchise fees: CenterPoint Energy Houston Electric ("CenterPoint") and Entergy. CenterPoint pays approximately 99.9% of the electric franchise fees paid to the City, which represents approximately $97.7 million per year.

Prior to electric deregulation, which became effective on January 1, 2002, electricity franchise payments were calculated as a percentage of the electric company's gross revenues from sales to customers located within the City limits. Under this payment formula, electric franchise fees to the City fluctuated from $80 million to as much as $90 million per year.

From January 2002 through June 2005, franchise payments were no longer calculated based on a percentage of gross revenues, but instead were based on kilowatt hour consumption by customers within the City limits. During this period, electric franchise revenues dropped significantly, averaging $75 million each year.

In July 2005, the City and CenterPoint entered into a new franchise agreement for a term of 30 years. The new agreement establishes a base franchise fee to the City of approximately $96 million per fiscal year, payable monthly, which is adjusted annually based on kilowatt hours delivered in the City.

The FY2020 electric franchise fee estimate is $99.4 million. The FY2021 electric franchise fee estimate of $97.7 million is approximately 1.7% lower than the FY2020 estimate. Kilowatt hour consumption for calendar year 2019 was down 1.7% from 2018.

The City of Houston exercises original jurisdiction over the rates, operations and services of these electric utilities for the Houston area.

Natural Gas Franchise

Like electric franchise fees, natural gas franchise fees are paid by utilities that use the City's rights-of-way for the transportation, delivery, sale and distribution of natural gas to customers in the City.

There is one company in Houston that pays natural gas franchise fees to the City of Houston: CenterPoint Energy Resources Corporation ("CenterPoint" – formerly Entex). These fees are paid monthly and are based on 5% of gross receipts on a rolling 3-year average. For FY2021, franchise fees are based on CenterPoint's 2017, 2018 and 2019 gross revenues.

The estimate for FY2020 natural gas franchise fees from CenterPoint is approximately $12.4 million. The FY2021 natural gas franchise fee estimate is $13 million, an increase of 5.2% from FY2020. CenterPoint's calendar year 2019 revenues were $271.3 million compared to calendar year 2016's revenues of $232.4 million, an increase of 16.7%. Residential account revenues and Transportation revenues in 2019 were up 21.2% and 23.6%, respectively, compared to 2016's accounts, which accounts for the majority of the increase in overall revenue.

The graph below provides a seven-year comparison of the City's natural gas franchise fee revenue

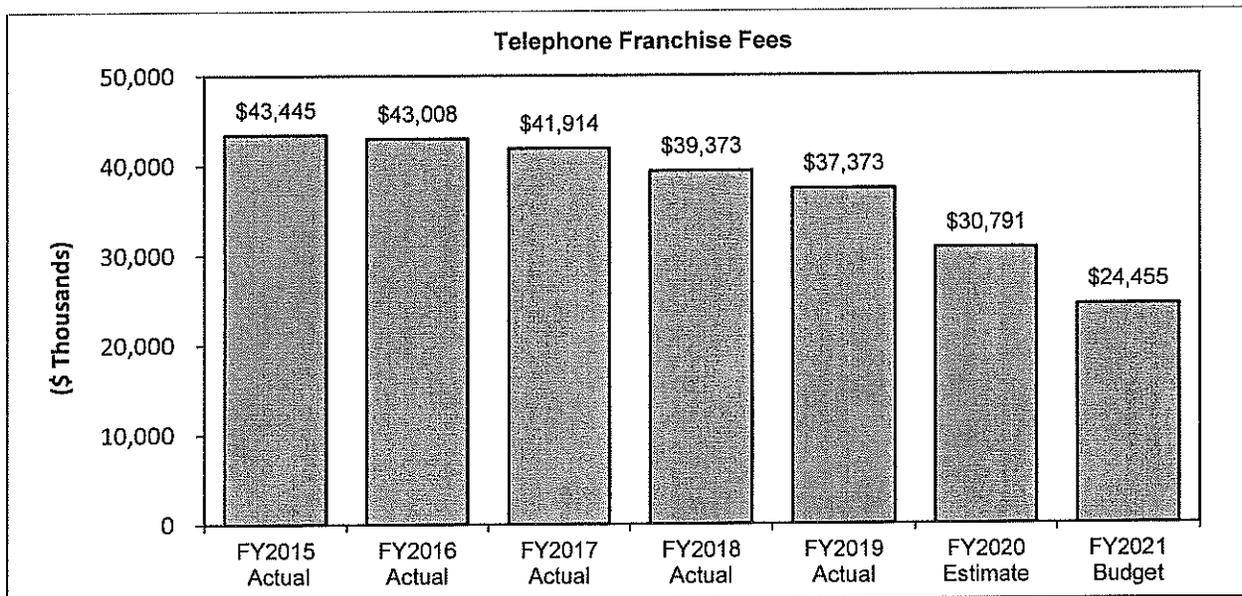

The City of Houston exercises original jurisdiction over the rates, operations and services of these natural gas utilities for the Houston area.

Telephone Franchise

Since deregulation of this industry in 2000, the telephone franchise fee paid to municipalities in Texas is derived by applying an "access line rate," assigned by the Public Utilities Commission of Texas (PUCT) and adjusted annually for inflation. The access line rates that is in effect during FY2021 are as follows: residential ($1.88); non-residential ($6.32); and point-to-point ($17.86).

The FY2020 estimate for telephone franchise fee is $30.8 million. The FY2021 projection of $24.5 million is a 20.6% decrease from FY2020 estimate primarily due to Texas Senate Bill 1152.

The following graph below provides a seven-year comparison of the City's telephone franchise fee revenue.

Cable TV Franchise Fees

Currently, there are four cable television/video service-providers operating in Houston under state-issued certificates of franchise authority: Comcast Cable, AT&T U-Verse, Suddenlink, and En-Touch Systems. Under the terms of the state franchise, these operators also pay the City of Houston 5% of their gross revenues from sales to Houston customers. The largest of these franchises is Comcast, which accounts for approximately 94.1% of the total cable franchise revenue projection for FY2021. The projection for FY2021 is $11.9 million, which is 26.3% lower than the FY2020 estimate of $16.1 million primarily due to Texas Senate Bill 1152.

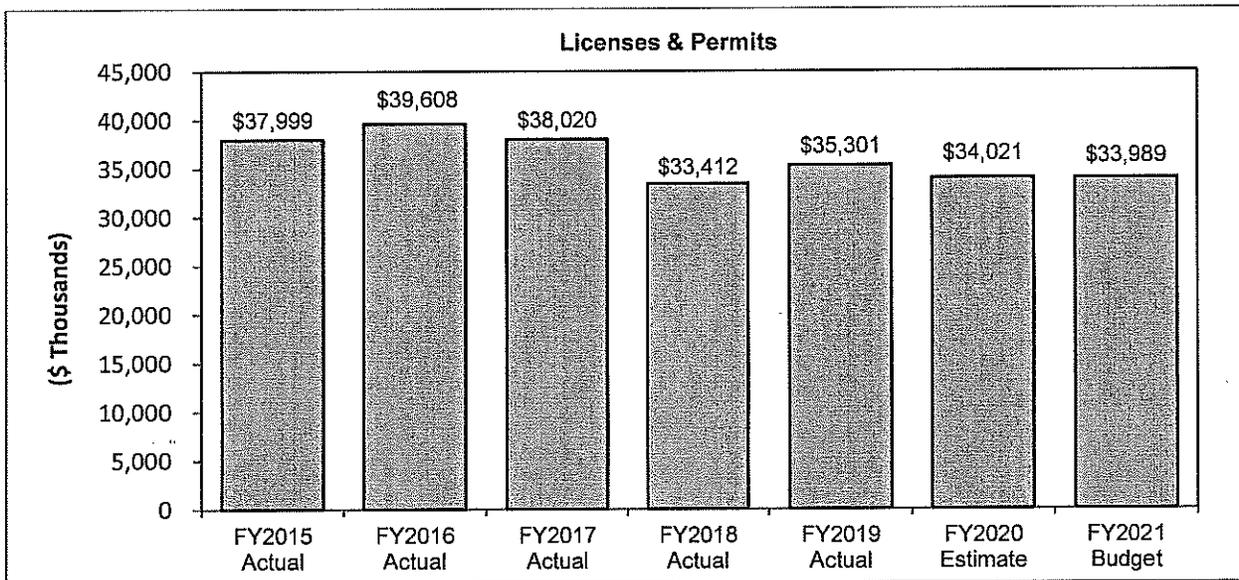

Solid Waste Hauler Franchise Fees

Solid waste haulers pay fees to compensate the City for the use of City streets. Approximately 142 active solid waste hauler franchises pay 4% of gross revenues from transporting commercial solid and industrial wastes that originate within the City limits. The FY2020 estimate for solid waste hauler franchise fees is $8.3 million, exclusive of audit recoveries. The FY2021 estimate of $8.4 million assumes an increase in revenues as a result of projected local economic growth.

Other Revenues

Licenses and Permits

The Licenses and Permits category includes such items as special fire, food dealer, burglar alarm, dumpster permits, and many other permits. The FY2021 revenue is estimated at $34 million, which remains unchanged from the FY2020 estimate.

Ambulance Fees

City of Houston Code of Ordinance Chapter 4 permits the City to provide Emergency Medical Services including ambulance transport to the public and permits the City to partially recover the cost of providing those services. The base and variable fee structure is addressed under Section 4.13.

The City contracts with a third-party vendor for the billing and collection of Emergency Medical Services. The revenue projection for Emergency Medical Services provided by the City of Houston for FY2021, which is impacted by COVID-19, is $51 million. This is $3 million higher than the FY2020 estimate of $48 million.

Other Charges for Services

Other charges for services include miscellaneous copy fees, public safety report fees, vending machine concessions, vehicle storage, hazardous material response, and others. The FY2021 revenues is $31.2 million, which is $15.3 million higher than the FY2020 estimate of $15.9 million.

Interfund Direct Charges

The General Fund charges the Houston Airport System for airport police service, which is the responsibility of Houston Police Department (HPD). The FY2021 projection of $33.6 million is $669,000 higher, or approximately 2% higher than the FY2020 estimates of $33 million.

Indirect Cost Recovery

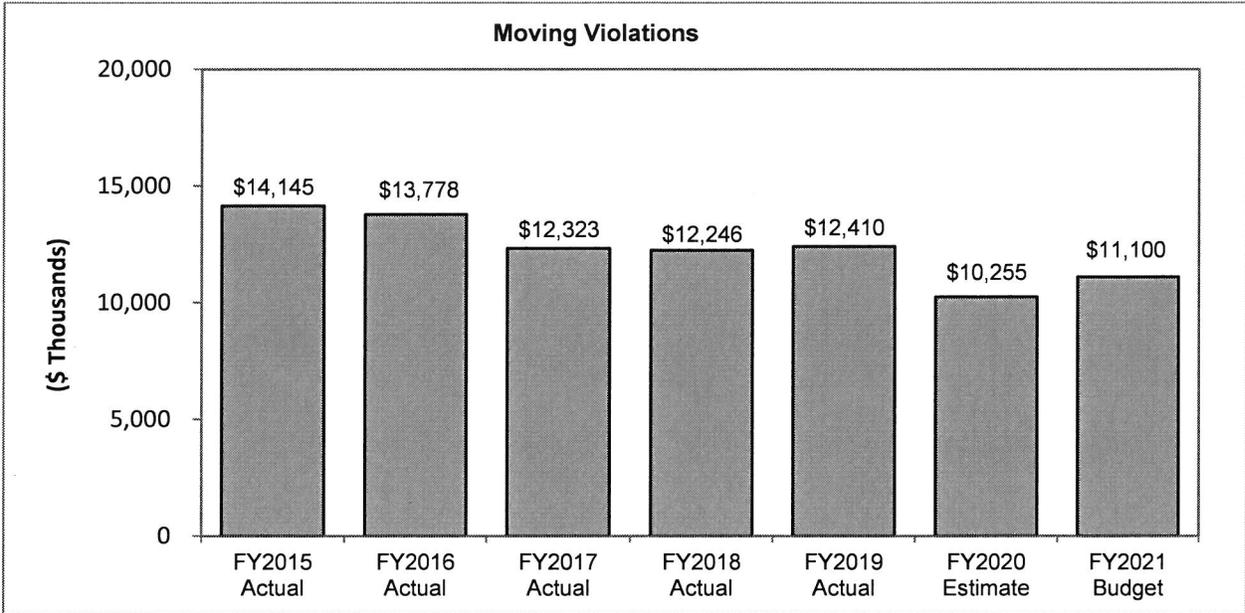

The General Fund provides citywide central support services and recovers the cost of these services through allocation of indirect costs. These amounts are determined through the preparation of an annual cost allocation plan, which distributes administrative overhead costs to General Fund operating departments and to other funds. For FY2021, the proposed plan calls for cost recoveries totaling $24.3 million, a decrease of $3.6 million in indirect interfund revenue from the FY2020 estimate of $27.9 million.

Moving Violations
