Council Member Boykins stated that KBR is proud of its long history in Houston and its many contributions to the city including philanthropic and community support and today, Houston remains its global headquarters and more than 3,000 KBR employees live and work in the Houston area and as a global corporate citizen, KBR believes it has a responsibility to the people and the communities in which it operates, it is committed to Zero Harm when it comes to Health, Safety, Security & Environment and these are core values for all of its employees and a key element in its Code of Business Conduct. KBR has reinforced its commitment to Zero Harm throughout the community through its philanthropic initiatives, to further enhance its long-time support for the Houston Fire Department (HFD), in 2016 KBR made a $100,000 donation towards the purchase of new and innovative safety equipment for firefighters and this new equipment will assist them in deploying an aggressive fire attack, while allowing firefighters to remove themselves from harm's way and this year, KBR donated $75,000 towards HFD's community outreach in an effort to support Houston firefighters and reduce fire related deaths, KBR's commitment to spread their ZERO HARM initiative to Houston firefighters and the citizens they serve, is a tribute to their corporate-social responsibility and on April 25, 2017, KBR will be recognized for its countless contributions to HFD and Houston and the City of Houston commends and appreciates KBR for its decades of service to our city and its residents, continuously impacting the lives of many through its philanthropic and economic endeavors and therefore, Mayor Turner hereby proclaimed April 25, 2017, as KBR Day in Houston, Texas. Council Members Stardig and Davis absent.

Council Member Kubosh stated that Jazz appreciation relies upon educators, societies, libraries, museums and musicians from across the country to promote and teach this unique cultural expression which has transformed America and inspired the world, as disc jockeys, radio station owners, show hosts, voice talents, music producers, promoters and managers, these Houston-based legends have celebrated and supported the indigenous music of jazz, which is the heart and soul of all popular music and Michael Harris has been a part of Houston radio since 1972, joining the KCOH radio team in 1974 and as the host of KCOH's "Person To Person" for more than 20 years, he has earned respect and popularity across the United States and he has served as the station's news director and hosted the popular "Gospel Melody Time." Don Patrick Samuel, Sr., began his professional career at KYOK Radio and continued at KCOH Radio as production director and announcer and his loyalty in demonstrating excellence in broadcasting has earned him numerous awards, including the prestigious Creole Heritage Zydeco Legend Award and the Houston Press Magazine award as the "Best Radio DJ" in Houston. Ralph Cooper, a fixture in Houston's sports and radio scene for nearly four decades has interviewed dozens of sports legends, including Jesse Owens, Joe Louis and Satchel Paige and Wash Allen started his radio career at 14 and had many years of successful broadcasting as an on-air personality, in the 70s, he was known as one of the top three broadcasters in the U.S. and was awarded Billboard's Annual Radio Programming Forum Award and Reverend Darrell Martin began Martin Broadcasting to bring Gospel to the airways and KWWJ is the first and flagship station of the Martin Broadcasting network and Legendary radio veteran, community advocate, producer, promoter, manager and businessman, the late Skipper Lee Frazier was involved with radio in Houston serving in various capacities, from disc jockey to owner and he produced the 1968 gold number one hit, "Tighten Up," for Archie Bell and the Drells, and he also managed the TSU Tornadoes, he was inducted into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame in 2004 and during Jazz Appreciation Month, on April 25, 2017, these jazz legends will be honored for their musical contributions and the City of Houston commends them for their extraordinary contributions to preserving the heritage and history of jazz and therefore Mayor Turner hereby proclaimed April 2017 as Jazz Appreciation Month in Houston, Texas. Council Member Stardig absent.

Council Member Travis stated that Multiple sclerosis (MS) is a chronic, unpredictable disease of the central nervous system that affects millions of lives, its progress, severity and specific symptoms are unpredictable, but advances in research and treatment are giving new hope every day to those affected and founded in 1946, the National Multiple Sclerosis Society is dedicated to ending the devastating effects of this disease and for cyclists and all those seeking a personal challenge and a world free of MS, the National Multiple Sclerosis Society organizes extraordinary rides around the nation for fundraising and the BP MS 150 is a two-day, 180-mile cycling ride organized by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society: Lone Star Chapter each spring. The BP MS 150 is the largest event of its kind in North America, and last year's event raised more than $20 million for MS and featured over 13,000 cyclists, creating a 60 mile long pace line on the roads leading towards Austin and the 33rd annual BP MS 150 fundraising ride will take place April 29-30, 2017, marking the City of Houston BP MS 150 Cycling Team's fifth year of participation and the funds raised through this event fuel medical research and help local people through essential direct services that empower and increase independence and this year's City of Houston BP MS 150 Cycling Team consists of 75 riders from several city departments and offices of City Council. The City of Houston commends the team members for their commitment and extends best wishes for many more miles of safe riding on the road to the ultimate goal — a world free of multiple sclerosis and therefore, Mayor Turner hereby proclaimed April 25, 2017, as City of Houston BP MS 150 Cycling Team Day in Houston, Texas. Council Members Stardig and Boykins absent.

Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis and Robinson absent. MOTION 2017-0214 ADOPTED

At 2:41 p.m. Mayor Turner requested the City Secretary to call the List of Speakers.

Ms. Kathryn McNiel, 4711 Yoakum St., 77006, (832)651-0044 had reserved time to speak but was not present when her name was called. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis and Robinson absent.

Mr. Guy Hagstette, no address, no phone, had reserved time to speak but was not present when his name was called. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis and Robinson absent.

Mr. Charles White, 8607 Martin Luther King Blvd., 77033, (713)292-3436 appeared and stated that he had to stop by today to offer a suggestion as an option for what is happening at the Sunnyside Multi-Purpose Center and his activism started back in 1974 and he had seen these types of issues go down 2 ways, that the City and the citizen are fighting each other or people in the community are fighting each other or even both and as an option, he would like to put together a focus meeting of about 150 to 250 people across the section that lives in the area and to see what might a consensus whether the Multi-Purpose stays or whether it goes and he just wanted to suggested that and he also wanted to have Andy Icken in the meeting too. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis, Laster, Knox and Robinson absent.

Mayor Turner stated that he will take it under advisement and he can assure him the community and the Administration would not be fighting each other and they want to give the people what they want but he also wants them to bear in mind, if they ask for something and they get it, that they remember what they asked for 2 years down the road if things do not end up like they anticipated.

Ms. Selisa Sirls, 13204 Lexington Farm Dr., Appleretta, GA, 30004, (832)335-1380 had reserved time to speak but was not present when her name was called. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis, Laster, Knox and Robinson absent.

Ms. Rosie McCutcheon, 7321 Alba St., 77088, (832)904-1477 appeared and stated that she is a Mother of 5 and a Caregiver for 4 other children and over 14 years ago she made a mistake of being convicted for a crime and she knew serving time would be difficult for her family but she did not realize the Judge had also sentenced her to a lifetime of being under employed, poverty, lower wages and housing issues, they all need to work not only to sustain their family but also to sustain dignity to get a 2nd chance and to move ahead and 2nd chance also means of starting over, they need employment policymakers to step up to join them and to raise wages to offer basic benefits for mom's like her need, they all need to come together to make Houston a City where everyone cares for everyone. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis, Laster, Knox and Robinson absent.

Ms. Mitzi Ordonez, 29000 S. Gessner Rd., 77063, (713)927-5908 appeared and stated that she is Community Organizer with the Texas Organizing Project and she lives with her family in District F, they have reviewed the Financial Policies and it lacks and their allies believe that Developers a multimillion dollar tax rate should pay family living wages, hire locally and hire 2nd chances and good and affordable housing and they need these chances so that workers do not have to rely on governmental programs, so they can tackle the unemployment African American community, so that Hispanic families can make more money and so they can afford better education for their children, it is not just for workers, it is for everyone and they need them to stand up for their families. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Laster, Knox and Robinson absent.

Council Member Le questioned Ms. Ordinez.

Mr. Elias Sanchez, 3918 74th St., 77002, (832)618-3472 had reserved time to speak but was not present when his name was called. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Laster, Knox and Robinson absent.

Ms. Kathy Blueford-Daniels, P.O. Box 1624, 77251, (713)594-5643 appeared and stated that she was coming on behalf of the family and as a Community Leader, they are concerned about the traffic coming and going North of 610 on Homestead, in the 6600 block March 31st, their family member, father and friend was killed, he was run over and dragged for almost 2 blocks, the traffic coming over that bridge right after 610 going North on Homestead needs consideration for a light as well as a caution light, it was a hit and run, they have not found out who did it and they are asking humbling to consider to do a traffic study, so they can have a caution light coming off of that bridge and a stop light on Homestead and Bennington, it is 2 blocks away from an Elementary School and please consider doing a survey and looking at putting a light and caution sign there. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis, Laster and Knox absent.

Mayor Turner requested that Gary Norman speak with Ms. Blueford-Daniels to take a look at that and they would work with Council Member Davis, the District Council Member.

Council Member Davis stated that there is a study that is supposedly been conducted for this and he hates that this incident happened but hopefully they will get Public Works to take another look at that.

Ms. Sandra Small, 3926 Sayers St., 77026, (832)574-2838 appeared and stated that her son John Small's was killed on the 31st and she presented his memorial picture to Members of Council, it took 3 days before they heard anything from the Officers about her son being killed, they did not call, they did not do anything, in consideration to people who lost someone, they stood there on that site and did an interview and the cars where coming off that bridge, someones child is going to get killed, there really needs to be a light there and if they go there, they would see, please take into consideration that someone else's child is going to get hurt and 3 days after her son was killed, there was a bad accident there. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis, Laster and Knox absent.

Mayor Turner thanked Ms. Small for coming and voicing her concern, they will be taking a look at it.

Ms. Debbie Small, 3331 Autumn Bridge Ln., 77084, (713)898-5053 had reserved time to speak but was not present when her name was called. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis, Laster and Knox absent.

Mr. Joseph Ballard, 6302 Rocky Nook Dr., Humble, TX, 77396, (281)850-6388 appeared and stated that he was also here to speak on behalf of his little brother, John Small, that Friday he got off work, he worked everyday, he went to eat with his girlfriend and the restaurant was crowed, he dropped his girlfriend off at the front and went down the street to the Valero to get himself a beer and he still had his uniform on and they can see because of the camera that he left out of there with his beer, walking across the street and from what the eyewitness told him, they can see him coming across the street and they slowed down and then a truck came from behind them, doing 70, 80 miles per hour and as soon has the truck went around the eyewitness, the truck hit John and drug him almost 2 blocks down the road, his girlfriend is still getting BBQ and she did not know that he got hit, she had to have someone to come pick her up and go back to see where John left and her GPS told her that it was still at the restaurant and when she came back she saw all the ambulances and stuff, she did not know it was him, and they had to find out 3 days later and after his mother called him he got on the phone to make sure that was John and when they found out it was John, they gave them the information about the investigator, he tried to call but no one would answer and when he did call they gave him excuses and how they dropped the ball, said that he was sorry, that was unacceptable, he was killed on Friday and they did not notify them, they had to find out themselves and as soon as he contacted Channel 11 and then all the calls started to come in and they interviewed with Crime Stoppers on a Thursday, this is unacceptable. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis and Knox absent.

Mayor Turner questioned Mr. Ballard about when the accident happened and he would check and he apologizes, certainly the family should have been notified sooner and he does not know where the ball dropped and there is no reason for not notifying the family much sooner and he would find out what happened and with the traffic flow on Homestead and Bennington and they would look into that.

Mayor Turner recognized Council Member Kubosh for a procedural motion, Council Member Kubosh moved that the rules be suspended for the purpose of hearing Ms. Kathy Gunter out of order and seconded by Council Member Robinson, all voting aye, nays none. Council Members Stardig, Boykins, Travis and Knox absent. MOTION 2017-0215 ADOPTED

Ms. Kathy Gunter, no address, (832)882-9775 appeared and stated that Mr. Small was someone's son, someone's father and she gives her condolences to the family, Homestead is a corridor from 5th Ward to Humble and there is a lot more traffic out there and thought about calling about it last year, they have contacted Council Member Davis's Office about it the same issue, they have not had any updates from Public Works, they called in January, March and she had the service request number, they called again in April and they spoke to Mr. Weatherford and they were supposed to get updates and if they had any updates because they have Houston Food Service there, a new Valero, a Texaco and there is just a lot of traffic out there and were requesting an update on the getting a traffic signal. Council Members Stardig, Travis and Knox absent.

Members of Council and Mayor Turner questioned Ms. Gunter.

Mr. Kevin Wo, no address, no phone appeared and stated he wanted to introduced Ms. Ni Tu.

Ms. Sunny Ni Tu, no address, no phone, appeared and stated that she is an actress from Taiwan and she was told a couple days ago that she should speak at City Hall in English and this is her 2nd time speaking in English and she came here because she was invited by the Houston International Festival that is coming up and she was happy that she received a Proclamation from Mayor Turner and that he is a wonderful Mayor and there are a lot of ways to build up a great communication between Taiwan and Houston and also a great opportunity with the Film Festival to meet with many other top film makers from different countries and it is a great way to show experience with each other. Council Members Travis and Knox absent.

Members of Council questioned Ms. Ni Tu.

Mr. James Hoop, 10903 Brittan Leaf Ln., 77034, (281)630-9085 had reserved time to speak but was not present when his name was called. Council Members Travis and Knox absent.

Mr. David Tidmore, no address, no phone, appeared and stated that they need to have accommodations with people with disabilities when they come to City Hall and the contracts that they consider on construction for streets and sidewalks, to make sure they have it ADA approved because some of the places that they do is that they fix it but they do it by the ADA compliance and he also wanted to find out who was in charge of the paper machines, the free machines in Houston for the newspapers because they are not maintained and what he can see is that there is no one to take care of these machines and it is more blight to the City and he has no problem to show it to them and he still has not heard from his office about a meeting, so that is still on the table, they can go to lunch so they do not have to have a meeting at his office. Council Members Davis, Le, Travis and Knox absent.

Mayor Turner stated that he appreciates the invite and for him being here.

Mr. Robert Campbell, 5022 Kelso, 77021, (713)737-5326 had reserved time to speak but was not present when his name was called. Council Members Davis, Le, Travis and Knox absent.

Mr. Richard Gardner, 1100 Elder, 77004, no phone, appeared and stated that he seen Mayor Turner at his Church and he also heard that he addressed the Firemen and said that they have to do something and he knows that the Mayor is a man of faith and a man of action and that is the kind of Mayor that they need, now the criminalization of homelessness, laws that criminalize the homeless are immoral and offend their basic human rights and these laws also affect homeless Veterans for them to put their lives in harm's way to protect the constitution that they violate and he is really speaking on the 1st, 4th and 8th Amendments and add to the fact that a homeless person would never, ever be intimidated or motivated to do any of this behavior that they want them to quit doing by a threat of warning, ticket and jail and some of them will relish the fact of being incarcerated because they can have a chance to food and it puts them on something a lot softer then on concrete and to get out of the weather, it is almost rewarding them and he does know about this stuff because he is homeless because the last 8 years of his life, he had dedicated to getting the homeless off the street to help them, getting them into rehabs and contacting their families and he can tell them this criminalization of homelessness will not work and the last thing he wanted to speak about in regards to the people that come out to feed them and his experiences with homelessness not one single time that he have gotten sick that he ate from these people. Council Members Davis, Le, Travis and Knox absent.

Mayor Turner stated that Mr. Gardner, is it better to have people in a home, than being on the street and he certainly does want his assistance in helping them in getting people off the streets because he does not want to see them on the street and that is the goal, it is not trying to criminalize anybody but to move them off the streets and into a home.

Ms. Twoner Abbington, 3650 Burker Rd., Apt. 317, Pasadena, TX, 77504, (713)208-9079 appeared and stated that she been a City Employee for 12 years for PWE, she is a Utility Worker or a Team Leader they gave her that position in May of last year and she is bring forth today some 2 copies of 2 Memo's and photos, she has 3 things hostility, dishonesty and her job is on the line her back is up against the wall, she had been to HR, to the Security, she had spoken to Management and all she gets is a Level 2 violence in the workplace and before she spoke to them, she did not have this, after she spoke with HR on the 20th which was 2 weeks ago she received a Level 2, cussing, inviting her to fight her in a parking lot, telling her to kiss their butts and she had reported this over and over and no one is doing anything, she is defending herself and she needs help and this had gone too far and if they look at the record at 2300 Federal Road she is the only employee that has the most write ups. Council Members Davis, Travis, Laster and Knox absent.

Mayor Turner questioned Ms. Abbington and advised her to speak with Jane Cheeks that is over HR for the City as a whole and see if they can get to the bottom of this.

MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Turner stated that he has a presentation in recognizing their Youth Ambassador for the Month of April for the month and Legacy Onaiwu who is a model student from Saint Constantine School in Houston. Through her kindness and thoughtful advocacy, she promotes acceptance of autistic children and people with disabilities. Her advocacy against bullying reflects her commitment to improving the community. Her experiences show that when disabled youth are given access to inclusive education, with the support of their families and the community, they can have a fulfilling academic experience, the mission of the Mayor's Young Ambassador

Program is to provide elementary and middle school students the opportunity to develop leadership and citizenship skills while learning about city government. Members develop a sense of personal growth and achievement, a profound understanding of city initiatives and work to establish a rapport with community leaders and the citizens of Houston. Young Ambassadors will serve the city in their roles for one month, participating in various community service projects and special events and the City of Houston commends and congratulates Legacy Onaiwu on this momentous occasion and her outstanding commitment to her school and extends best wishes on a rewarding month and therefore, I, Sylvester Turner, Mayor of the City of Houston, hereby proclaim April 25, 2017, as Legacy Onaiwu Day Mayor's Young Ambassador of the Month in Houston, Texas. Council Member Stardig absent.

Mayor Turner further stated that he wanted to congratulate the Rockets last night on a win as they move on to the next series and lastly he spent Monday in Austin in dealing with the Pension issue and a lot of conversations with a lot of different Members and had an opportunity to visit with Lieutenant Governor, Senators and a number of Members on the House side and he anticipated fairly soon probably within a week's time movement taking place, both in the House and on the Senate and requested the Members of Council to reach out to their contacts in Austin to support the Houston Pension Bill and shortly after they adjourn for the day, they will be holding a Press Conference and the issues will be focused on Pension and Public Safety.

At 9:23 a.m. Mayor Turner requested that the City Secretary to call the Consent Agenda.
