Before beginning the public session, Mayor Whitmire wanted to clarify the misrepresentation concerning Item 26, which has been pulled from tomorrow's agenda, and wanted to put it in its proper context. The City does hundreds of grants in which many City departments benefit from. When the City was encouraged to seek homeless funding, the foundations were concerned that we were not seeking other sources of funding. So to reassure them, the administration put the Model Cities application on the agenda. It was a message of our commitment to the homeless.

At 2:31 p.m., Mayor Whitmire requested the City Secretary to call the List of Speakers.

MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Whitmire is pleased that things are moving in the right direction. He thanked all Council Members at the horseshoe and also the Directors and rank and file employees so there was no need to highlight a department today. He invited all to a reception this afternoon in the Legacy Room for Mary Benton, Mayor's Office Chief of Communications, who has resigned. She's been given a wonderful opportunity at METRO and we want to honor her service to the City.

At 9:09 a.m., Mayor Whitmire requested the City Secretary to call the Consent Agenda

Council Member Ramirez presented a written table amendment as followed:

Amend Item 38 to add subsections (c), (d) and (e) as follows:

(c) Notwithstanding (b), the City Secretary or their designee shall, within five business days of the time the filing was due, file an electronic or written sworn complaint with the Texas Ethics Commission clearly describing a filer's failure to timely file the required report. The filing shall include any documents or materials necessary to establish the violation.

(d) The City Secretary shall post on the City Secretary's website a list of officeholders and candidates for city elective office who have failed to file by the required deadline, within twenty-four hours of the passage of the deadline. The City Secretary shall update the list periodically as late filed reports are received.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, before filing a complaint with the Texas Ethics Commission or publishing a list of filers who have failed to timely file a campaign finance report, the City Secretary shall take the time reasonably necessary to review and verify the information, records, documents, and other information necessary to determine whether a person is required to and has failed to timely file a campaign finance report. The City Secretary shall complete such verification and, when appropriate, file the complaint with the Texas Ethics Commission and publish and update the list of filers who have failed to timely file a campaign finance report as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving, reviewing, and considering all information reasonably necessary to determine whether a person required to file a campaign finance report has failed to do so in a timely manner in accordance with applicable state law.
