City of Houston Neighborhood Restoration Centers

Purpose: A network of centers comprised of relevant city departments and non profit organizations to marshal, coordinate and ensure delivery of effective public and private disaster recovery services to survivors of Hurricane Harvey and future disasters.

All Neighborhood Restoration Centers have four core elements, which are:

1. Outreach, Engagement, and Assessment
2. Disaster Recovery Information and Resources
3. Workshops and Special Events
4. Direct Assistance Services

Current locations:

- Acres Homes Multiservice Center
- Kashmere Gardens Multiservice Center
- Northeast Multi-Service Center
- West End Multi-Service Center
- Memorial Assistance Ministries Center (1625 Blalock Rd)
- Memorial Assistance Ministries (Spring Branch Community Health Center-Cypress, TX 77433)
- East Aldine -Baker Ripley (3415 Aldine Mail Route)
- Pasadena at the ClevelandRipley Center
- Edgebrook-Baker Ripley at St. Frances Cabrini Catholic Church and St Stephen Presbyterian Church
- HarbachRipley (Golfcrest / Bellfort / Reveille, Greater Hobby Neighborhood)
- Gulfton Baker-Ripley

Services offered:

- Resource Linking
- Case Management
- Home Repair and Rebuilding Information
- Legal Aid
- Social Services
- Self-Serve Programs
- Educational Sessions
- Mental Health
- Health and Wellness
- Employment Assistance

Please visit https://houstonrecovers.org for more information on Houston Recovery efforts and Neighborhood Restoration Centers!