MAYOR PARKER, COUNCILMEMBER GALLEGOS TO ANNOUNCE MAJOR INITIATIVE TO DECREASE ANIMAL OVERPOPULATION

WHAT: City leaders will announce a new partnership and major initiative to reduce and prevent animal overpopulation in the city of Houston. The new initiative will further complement the city's long-term effort to reduce the number of stray dogs and cats in Houston, which is estimated to total between 800,000 and 1,200,000.

WHEN: Wednesday, March 4, 2015 (TODAY)
10:30 a.m., immediately following City Council's Wednesday morning meeting

WHERE: City Hall Proclamation Room (third floor)
901 Bagby Street
Houston, TX 77002
