

Media Alert

Houston Fire Department

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: November 18, 2016 11:49:17 AM CST

AREA STUDENTS TO EXPERIENCE ONE-DAY "FIREFIGHTING 101 - EMS" CAMP

What: As part of the C.A.S.E.Y. FIRE OPS area students currently in the 11th or 12th grade who's schools participate with the C.A.S.E.Y. Fire Ops Program , will experience a fun-filled, yet educational day of "Firefighting 101 –EMS".

When: Tomorrow, November 19, 2016, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Where: HFD's Val Jahnke Training Facility (VJTF), 8030 Braniff St, Houston, Texas 77061

The C.A.S.E.Y. Fire Ops goal is to create and foster a career path to become a Firefighter/EMT in high school sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Additional Information: The One-day camp that will provide educational opportunities and simulations of basic skills of a Houston Firefighter. Students will be introduced and have an opportunity to wear firefighter personal protection equipment, and have a hands-on experience in the following evolutions (Patient Assessment; Mechanical Aids to Breathing; Obtain vitals (blood pressure, pulse); Bandaging/Splinting; Spinal Immobilization; Adult CPR, AED, and Mass Casualty/Triage). At the end of the day, there will be an evolution finale'.