Active Seniors Line Up for Western Dancing at the Kingwood Community Center

The Houston Parks and Recreation Department and the Kingwood Community Center will host the Go Western Line Dancing Jamboree at 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 12. One of the most popular H.P.A.R.D. programs for active seniors, line dancing brings them out on the dance floor for exercise and social interaction, and several groups will show off their moves at the Jamboree. The audience will also be able to join in the fun.

WHO: Seniors participating in line dancing groups at community centers
Houstonians interested in H.P.A.R.D. programs for seniors

WHAT: Go Western Line Dancing Jamboree

WHEN: Tuesday, March 12, 2013
11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

WHERE: Kingwood Community Center
4102 Rustic Woods Drive
Houston, TX 77345

More than just an exhibition of the groups' line dancing skills, the jamboree will give everyone a chance to get out on the floor and learn the moves, whether or not they already have dance skills or a partner. Raffles, refreshments, and music will round out the fun for all present. The event also gives citizens a chance to see the new Kingwood Community Center and get information on programs available there. There is no charge for participation in the Go Western Line Dancing Jamboree.

The Houston Parks and Recreation Department (H.P.A.R.D.) stewards and manages over 37,832 acres of parkland and greenspace for the City of Houston and develops and implements recreational programming for citizens of all abilities.
