

Language Spoke at Home by City of Houston Council Districts

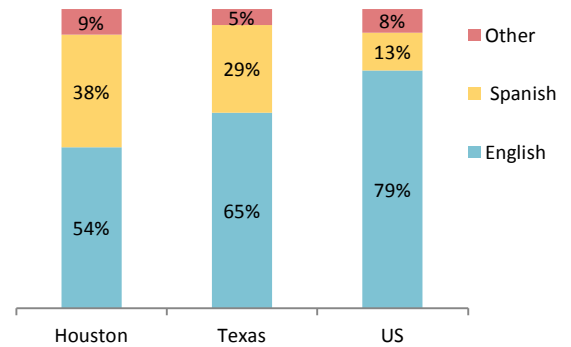

Source: U.S. Census Bureau

Date: August 2014

Language Spoken City of Houston by Council Districts

Language Spoken City of Houston, State of Texas and the US

- Spanish speaking population is generally spread out throughout Houston.
- 38% (of persons 5 years and older) speak Spanish at home in Houston compared to 29% and 13%, respectively for Texas and the United States.
- 54% (of persons 5 years and older) speak only English at home compared to 79% in the United States.
- Within City of Houston, Council Districts H, I and J have more than 55% or more who speak Spanish, followed by District A with 48%.
- Most English only speakers (70% or higher) are in Council Districts C,D and G.
- District F alone has higher proportion (23%) of people who speak other languages (primarily Asian).