

Median Earnings by Education City of Houston and United States

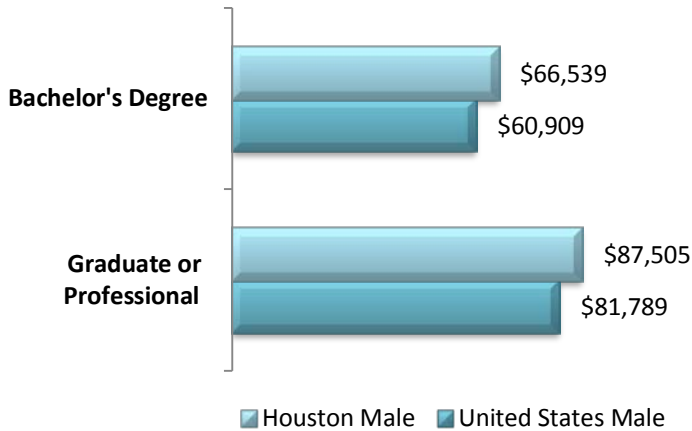

Source: 2013 American Community Survey: U.S. Census Bureau

Date: November 2014

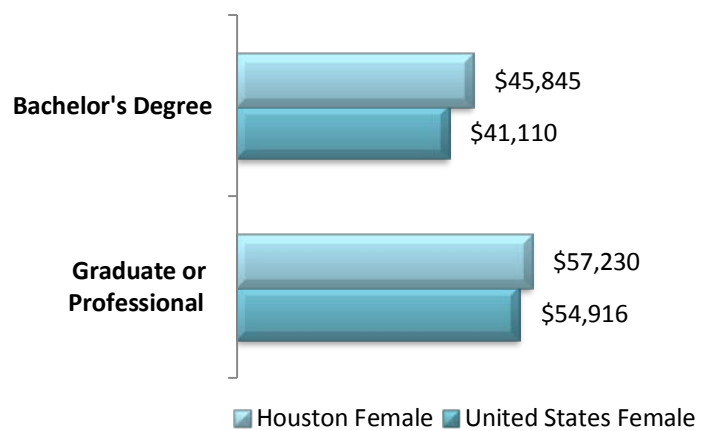

Median Earnings by Education City of Houston and the US

Median Earnings by Education: Male City of Houston and the US

Median Earnings by Education: Female City of Houston and the US

- Data is based on 'Median Earnings in the past 12 months' Educational attainment table as released by the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey 1-year estimates.
- All values are in 2013 inflation-adjusted dollars (for persons 25 years and over)
- Houston's median earnings in 'Graduates or Professional' category is 8% ($5,425) higher than the United States. Similarly Houston is higher by 7% (5,716) for the Male category.
- In Houston, those with Bachelor's degrees are earning 123% higher than those with just High School diploma; and those with Graduate or Professional degrees are earning higher by 205%.