

Vehicles Available

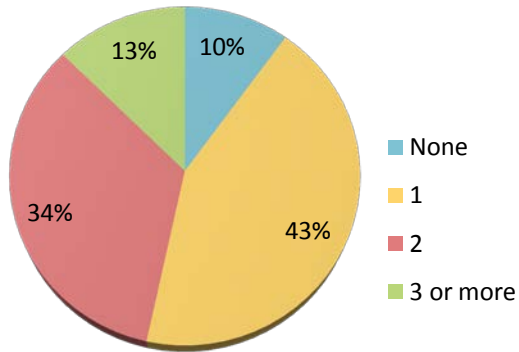

City of Houston and the US

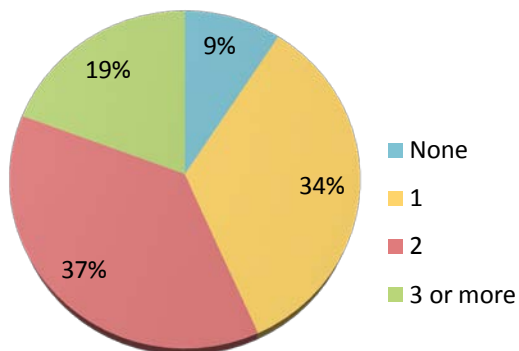

Source: 2012 American Community Survey: U.S. Census Bureau

Date: July 2014

City of Houston

United States

- Data on vehicles available at home were obtained from U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey data.
- Housing units that have at least one vehicle available at home in Houston (43%) is much higher than in the United States (34%).
- Houston residents have higher share of three or more vehicles at home compared to the United States as whole. 75% (744,972) of Houston residents commute to work in their personal vehicles.
- Note: Data has been compiled from occupied housing units that have passenger cars, vans, suvs, pickups or panel trucks of one ton capacity or less kept at home. Vehicles rented or leased are also included. Immobile vehicles are excluded.