HPD Volunteer Initiatives Program (VIP)

July 10, 2014

Chief McClelland met with a group of HPD student interns for an open discussion on decision making, achieving goals and following HPD's core values of Honor, Integrity, and Respect. The program provides qualified students with course credit and practical work experience that compliments their academic course work. HPD involves students in various aspects of police work and with an opportunity to integrate theory and practice. Students from participating institutions may perform a one or two-term internship at various locations/divisions throughout the police department. For more information visit the HPD Website or call 713-308-3200 and speak with Senior Police Officer Anthony Valle or Ms. Maria Ponce.
